U.S. Senate Passes Bill To Curb Strikes

Far-Reaching Law Denounced By Union Heads

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Senate today passed its big labor bill designed to curb strikes and halt many union practices.

The far-reaching measure, denounced by organized labor but generally endorsed by many industrialists, now goes to conference for compromise with a tougher bill approved by the House.

Then the compromise version will go to the White House, probably late this month.

Shortly before the final vote the Senate rejected 73-19 a substitute bill drafted by a group of Democrats who regarded it as the kind of legislation President Truman would sign. Critics called it a "milk-and-water" bill.

Senator Robert Taft (Rep.-O.), chairman of the Senate's Republican policy and labor committee, led the fight for the bill adopted.

The milder bill would have permitted the closed shop, under which employers can hire only union members. It made no provision for injunctions against national emergency strikes. The Taft measure does.

Earlier Senator Alben Barkley (Dem.-Ky.) shouted to the Senate that House Speaker Joseph Martin (Rep.-Mass.) had "engaged in a form of intimidation against the President of the United States" by declaring that there would be no effort to pass new legislation if labor and tax bills were vetoed.

It was a "peculiar spectacle," the Democratic leader went on, to find the Speaker of the House announcing in advance of final congressional agreement on the terms of such legislation that a veto would mean no new measures would be enacted.

Italian Premier Resigns Under Socialist Fire

ROME (AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi handed his resignation today to provisional President Enrico de Nicola as Socialists and Christian Democrats charged each other with responsibility for collapse of his coalition government.

A communique from the Christian Democratic Premier's press office said De Gasperi was resigning because of Socialist attacks on him Monday. The three-party coalition has been torn with dissension over Italy's debt problem.

De Gasperi's public works minister, Giuseppe Romita, said after a 50-minute extraordinary cabinet meeting that the Premier's decision was taken because of a Socialist charge that he was deliberately fomenting a political crisis.

De Gasperi has presided over a coalition of Christian Democrats, Communists and Socialists for months.

A reliable source said De Gasperi had tried to resign before calling the cabinet together at the request of President Enrico de Niccla, who desired an effort to achieve national unity.

The aged president, it was understood, refused the resignation and asked De Gasperi to make another attempt to present a united front before appearing before the Constituent Assembly.

South Saskatchewan To Lose M.P. In Redistribution Of Ridings

OTTAWA (CP)—Southern Saskatchewan will lose one of its representatives in the Commons if Parliament approves a recommendation adopted today by the redistribution committee.

The recommendation was contained in the report of a Saskatchewan sub-committee to the main committee charged with realigning the boundaries of federal electoral constituencies to increase the Commons membership from 245 to 255.

Because of a drop in Saskatchewan's population it will have 20 instead of 21 members after the next election.

At present there are four seats in southern Saskatchewan — Maple Creek, Wood Mountain, Weyburn and Assiniboia. The sub-committee recommended that Wood Mountain and Weyburn be joined and that the new seat be known as Assiniboia. The existing seat of Assiniboia would be called Estevan.

The boundaries of Rosthern, Humboldt, Yorkton, Moose Jaw and Lake Centre will be changed to bring them as close as possible to the average of 46,700 population for city seats and 43,500 for rural seats.

The Saskatchewan report, presented by Walter Tucker, Lib., Rosthern, was adopted without discussion, but the committee bogged down on the question of whether or not the Mackenzie River area should have representation in the Commons. The area now is without representation and a few weeks ago the committee had agreed that it should be joined with the Yukon for representation purposes.

Boost In Old Age Pensions May Be Made Retroactive

OTTAWA (CP)—Increases in old age pensions, provided for in a bill which will come before the Commons on conclusion of the budget speech debate, likely will be retroactive to May 1 if the provinces agree to the provisions of the federal legislation, it was learned today.

It was learned the federal government proposes to increase the basic monthly pension from $20 to $30 a month and to widen the list of persons eligible for pensions. The pension paid in British Columbia is $35, the province adding $5 to its previous contribution of $5.

Health Minister Martin said recently it was hoped the legislation would be made effective from May 1 and said the provinces were being approached with a view to have them sign new agreements.

Premier Garson of Manitoba said in Winnipeg Monday night that his government had instructed the old age pension branch to include a $5 increase in May cheques now being made out.

The basic pension now is $20 a month. A supplement of $5 a month was provided for by a wartime order-in-council. It was understood the government plans to incorporate the order-in-council in the new bill and increase the basic amount by another $5 a month.

In addition, it is reported, that persons 70 and over with annual income of about $500 or less, would still be able to collect the full pension. The present ceiling on income is $425.

Police Patrol Lachute To Prevent Strike Bloodshed

LACHUTE, Que. (CP) — A scene of a five-week-old textile strike for higher wages which has turned into a major Quebec labor issue, this industrial town was tense today as provincial policemen, under command of Deputy Director Hilaire Beauregarde, patrolled streets "to avoid bloodshed."

An early morning clash Monday at the picket line at Ayers Ltd., textile mill, later dispersed by police who arrested several United Textile Workers of America (A.F.L.) members, led to a no-gathering ban by the police.

The deputy director, ordered to the spot Monday night by Premier Duplessis, who as Attorney-General of Quebec, said in a statement that Communists were trying to take charge of the Ayers mills and had imported "thugs" from Montreal and Ontario to stop workers entering the plant.

L. Roback, union publicity director, said picket lines were formed around the two plants this morning and no trouble had been reported. He added that 150 provincial policemen were believed in town.

Union spokesman said 150 persons had been counted entering the Ayers plant. Of these 70 were identified as office staff and foremen, 30 as "workers employed within the past 10 days," and 50 as regular employees.

Bank Responsible For Marked Cheque In Calgary Case

OTTAWA (CP)—Responsibility of a bank for certifying a post-dated cheque was defined today in a judgment handed down by the Supreme Court of Canada.

The Court reversed a decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Alberta and ruled that Albert M. Keyes of Calgary, who called to stop payment on a $2,000 cheque which had already been cashed, was not responsible because the bank already had certified the cheque and paid the money prior to the date specified.

It all happened Jan. 8, 1945, when Mr. Keyes, a taxi owner, drew a cheque on the Royal Bank of Canada at Calgary for $2,000, payable to Mrs. J. I. Mundy, who wished to purchase a restaurant. He post-dated the cheque Jan. 9, "deliberately with a view to being in a position to stop payment on it if the proposed transaction fell through."

Through oversight on the part of bank employees, the cheque was certified and payment made to Mrs. Mundy on the same day.

The Supreme Court of Alberta ruled in favor of Mr. Keyes, but its Appellate Division reversed judgment. Today the Supreme Court of Canada ruled in favor of the taxi owner with Mr. Justice J. Rand, dissenting.

Saves Husband, Self

VANCOUVER (CP)—Eighty-three-year-old Mrs. William Warren today was credited with saving her own life and that of her 78-year-old husband after their home was filled with gas from a leaky jet. She was awakened when her husband fell in the hallway, and managed to drag him into the bedroom before telephoning for help. Both were revived by the fire department inhalator squad.

Saskatchewan Act To Cut Farm Debt Interest Invalid

OTTAWA (CP)—The Supreme Court of Canada, in a judgment handed down today, declared ultra vires section six of the Saskatchewan Farm Security Act providing for reduced interest in farmers' debts during poor crop years.

A related reference, making similar provision in regard to debts in connection with housing enterprises, was automatically ultra vires by the same decision.

Mr. Justice R. Taschereau, who dissented from the court's decision on mortgages and bills of sale, said he still would answer "No" to the second question regarding housing loans.

The contested section provides that in any year in which farmer's crop yield is less than $6 an acre, the principal owing on all mortgages or bills of sale shall be reduced by the amount of interest due. At the same time the date for the final payment of principal would be postponed a year.

HEARING IN OCTOBER

Arguments of the validity of the act were heard by six justices of the Supreme Court between Oct. 16 and Oct. 21, 1946. Mr. Justice J. W. Estey, the court's seventh justice, did not sit in on the hearings because he was Attorney-General of Saskatchewan prior to his appointment to the bench in 1944.

Opposing the validity of the section the Farm Security Act were Hon. J. L. Ralston, former Defence Minister and counsel for the Attorney-General of Canada, D. W. Mundell, counsel for the Justice Department, and C. F. H. Carson, counsel for the Dominion Mortgage and Investments Association.

Upholding the constitutionality of the section were G. W. Mason of Toronto, counsel for the Attorney-General of Saskatchewan, H. J. Wilson of Edmonton, counsel for the Attorney-General of Alberta, and Yves Prevost of Quebec, counsel for the Quebec Attorney-General.

PROVINCE TO APPEAL

REGINA (CP) — Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan said the Saskatchewan government will immediately appeal to the Privy Council the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada in a judgment handed down today declaring ultra vires the section of the Provincial Farm Security Act providing for reduced interest in farmers' debts during crop failure years.

Mr. Douglas said that "in the meantime, if necessary, we will use every power which we have to provide security of tenure for the people on the land."

Decision of the Supreme Court to set aside section six of the act—passed by the C.C.F. government during its first year of office in 1944—will please the federal government, Mr. Douglas added.

"The latter asked to have this section thrown out because it prevented them collecting their pound of flesh from the veterans under the Veterans' Land Act," he said.

There was no cause for worry on the part of Saskatchewan farmers for the appeal would be launched immediately and the provincial government would use all its powers to protect them.

U.N. Committee On Palestine Defeats Move By Soviets

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—Despite a threatened Arab walkout, the political committee of the United Nations' Assembly today defeated a Soviet move to have a U.N. Palestine inquiry commission draft proposals for immediate independence of the Holy Land.

The vote came after Faris el Khoury, Syrian delegate, had said the Arab delegations were considering walking out in protest against a majority stand on the Palestine question.

El Khoury, a leading spokesman for the five Arab states in the U.N., told newspapermen that if the present trend in the deliberation of the Assembly's political committee continues, the Arabs will adopt a policy of "non-co-operation" with the work of the proposed U.N. Palestine inquiry commission.

The slain constables, members of the Criminal Investigation Department, were mowed down by a blazing fusillade of gunfire while streets were crowded with shoppers. Source of the shots was uncertain, but police said they might have been fired from a nearby balcony.

The officers, off duty when shot down, had come to Palestine only recently.

Police pressed a series of identity checks in a hunt for the killers.

Detroit Gambler Shot In Street

DETROIT (AP)—F. A. Barkay, 33-year-old minor police character and once-convicted gambler, was shot down in the street today in a slaying reminiscent of Detroit's roaring rum-running era of the 1920s.

Police expressed fears that his murder may be linked to a week-end crackdown in which officers claimed to have smashed an $8,000,000 gambling syndicate.

Nine bullets were pumped into Baraky's body by a man who accosted him and an unidentified woman companion outside a bowling alley and bar.

British Mission Plan For United India Preferred

LONDON (AP) — An India Office spokesman said today Britain still favored the plan of the British cabinet mission for a United India as the best constitutional solution for the troubled land.

Viscount Mountbatten, the Viceroy, is in complete agreement with this view, the spokesman said, and it will be conveyed to Indian political leaders when they meet the Viceroy at New Delhi June 2.

The cabinet mission recommended creation of an Indian union which would embrace both British India and the princely states. Many of the essential features of the separate Moslem state of Pakistan would be retained in the predominantly Moslem areas under that plan.

The spokesman said there was a possibility of power being transferred to the Indian people before June, 1948, deadline fixed by the British government last February, "because the Prime Minister implied just that when he told the Commons Britain would quit India 'not later than' that date."

Other government sources said it was likely that if the Indian party leaders unanimously called for transference of power before June, 1948, Lord Mountbatten would have the authority to decide to do so on the spot.

The informants said the 10-day-old London talks between Gen. Lord Ismay, senior member of the Viceroy's staff, and members of the cabinet were still under way.

The club has been operating for a number of years.

Abbott Budget Appears Headed For Early Adoption By Commons

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott's budget appeared headed for swift adoption by Parliament today as the budget debate moved rapidly toward its conclusion.

With just a week of oratory expended on the government's financial prospects for the year, there were indications it would be completed in the next couple of days.

The debate moved along at a rapid-fire pace Monday afternoon and night, with Agriculture Minister Gardiner and an assortment of nine other speakers alternately blessing and condemning its provisions.

Making a spirited defence of the budget, the Agriculture Minister included government measures regarding farmers and its authorized increase of 10 cents a pound in the consumer price of butter.

Budget debate speakers included Angus MacInnis, C.C.F., Vancouver East; Robert Fair, S.C., Battle River, Alta., and R. R. Knight, C.C.F., Saskatoon City.

Mr. Gardiner said it was the government's belief that "during the transitional period from war to peace we should guide the farmer and the consumer back into a sound relationship under which they can deal with one another."

About the recent butter price increase Mr. Gardiner said Canadian consumers owed something to the farmers.

Mr. Fair declared the government, in settling any immigrants it brought to the country, should not place them on farms. He also called for an end of butter rationing.

Mr. MacInnis urged the federal government reconvene the Dominion-Provincial conference and keep it in session until general agreement was reached or, at least, until it had been determined who was blocking agreement. The need for a national social security plan was urgent.

NOT CHRISTIAN FRONT

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, said "neither the Social Credit movement of Canada nor the group of Social Credit members in this House takes its lead" from Gerald L. K. Smith, head of the Christian Front movement in the United States.

He made the statement while raising a question of privilege on a Montreal Gazette dispatch which quoted Norman Jaques, S.C., Wetaskiwin, as saying the Social Credit Party was doing the same work in Canada as the Christian Front in the United States.

He enlisted in the Air Force, and resumed his post-graduate work on discharge. His master's thesis was on the subject of Milton.

Discontent Reported Growing As Russia Starts 5-Year Plans

By ROSS MUNRO

LONDON (CP) — The Soviet Union is making a desperate drive to recoup her vast war losses and by three postwar five-year plans she hopes to achieve American industrial standards of production. The pace is tremendous and inevitably difficulties are appearing.

Among the younger workers there is high enthusiasm. They are putting everything they have into the job and striving with almost religious fervor to achieve the goal of a completely Communist state.

DIPLOMATS' REPORT

But several foreign diplomats in Moscow who know Russia well and with whom I had long talks during a month there say discontent is developing among workers past 35 years of age. Some Russians hinted obliquely at the same conclusion.

The older people, many of whom took part in the 1917 revolution, thought they were sharing in the building of a new country and a classless state. After years of slavish labor the promised blessings of socialism haven't generally appeared. These people have gradually become disillusioned at the fading prospects of a better life under a Communist regime.

It is hard to convince them now that another five or 10 years of heart-breaking work will bring the goal nearer. They see privilege above them and those who can compare current conditions with those of pre-revolution find little to console them.

One leading foreigner in Moscow who knew pre-revolutionary Russia told me: "It is difficult to compare the present and 1914, for example, but I don't think there has been any great improvement in the standard of living of the masses."

The 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 Communist Party members, of course, staunchly support the regime and its economic as well as political policies, but in a population of 190,000,000 the proportion of party members is small.

POSTWAR LETDOWN

The disillusionment and discontent among older people are partly a reflection of a postwar letdown which other countries also have experienced and its eventual effect is unpredictable.

Soviet leaders probably are aware of it, but they keep urging more and better production. Full development of socialism and then complete Communism of Russia. It is Premier Stalin's thesis that communization of Russia is the quickest way to bring about what he considers inevitable revolutions in other countries.

Britons To Learn Peace Possibilities Of Atomic Energy

LONDON (Reuter)—An all-out drive to educate the British people to peacetime possibilities of atomic energy will start in September.

It has the approval of the government though the bulk of the necessary funds is being supplied privately.

The major effort will be borne by an "atomic train" leaving London early in September for 55 provincial towns and cities. Scientists will lecture on basic physics and the train will carry exhibits.

Radioactive sand from the Los Alamos, N.M., desert, where the atomic bomb was first tested, a geiger counter to illustrate the power of gamma rays and other equipment used by the scientists at Britain's No. 1 atom station at Harwell, Berkshire, will be on show.

Coinciding with the departure of the atomic train, Britain's schools will receive a motion picture explaining development of atomic research.

A third development concerns the British Atomic Scientists' Association, sponsors of the atomic train. They are sending lecturers to small organization such as women's institutes, educational associations and trade unions, to answer questions and explain the government's drive to release atomic energy for industrial purposes.

Regina City Loses Crown Tax Appeal

OTTAWA (CP)—The Supreme Court of Canada today allowed an appeal of Regina Industries Ltd. against a Saskatchewan Court of Appeal judgment which had ruled the company had to pay a business tax for certain buildings and property in Regina.

The court ruled that the company, incorporated for the purpose of performing a contract with the crown, was not liable for assessment for business taxes because it was actually the Crown and not Regina Industries Ltd. which carried on the business in question. The plant was engaged from 1941 to 1944 in the manufacture of gun carriages.

The respondent, the City of Regina, was ordered to pay costs in both the Supreme Court of Canada and the Saskatchewan Court of Appeal.

Prices To Drop Soon Says Commerce Chief

WINNIPEG (CP)—Prices on goods in Canada will be dropping "shortly," C. Gordon Cockshutt of Brantford, Ont., president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said Monday night when he passed through Winnipeg en route west from Toronto on a speaking tour before western provincial boards of trade.

"The trend throughout the Dominion is one of prices going down," said Mr. Cockshutt. "Of course, the removal of subsidies means that you no longer pay for the commodity through your taxes, but pay for it directly.

Vancouver Storm Over Cabaret Hours

VANCOUVER (CP) — While cabaret operators won permission from the City Council Monday to remain open until 2 a.m. Sundays during the daylight saving period, indications today pointed to a possible storm of protest being raised over the one-hour extension.

Rev. Elbert Paul, pastor of the First Baptist Church, criticized the by-law amendment, saying: "This is another instance of the City Council's willingness to violate the Lord's Day Act."

At the same time, dance hall and bowling alley managers—not included in the by-law amendment — indicated the later closing hour would be "nice to have" too.

Schacht To Appeal 8-Year Sentence

STUTTGART (AP) — Hjalmar Schacht, German financial wizard who was cleared of war crimes charges by the International Military Tribunal at Nuernberg seven months ago, was convicted as a major Nazi offender by a German denazification court today and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment. Later Schacht's lawyer said he would appeal the sentence.

The verdict was announced by Court President Fritz Lenz in a packed courtroom where the former Nazi Finance Minister and Reichsbank president had been on trial for six weeks.

The 70-year-old Schacht heard the verdict in stunned silence, his face drawn and white.

The court ordered confiscation of all of Schacht's remaining personal fortune, officially estimated at 1,190,000 marks ($119,000), except for 10,000 Reichsmarks, forbade him to hold any public office and banned him from voting in any election, practising as a lawyer, participating in political activities, joining any political party, or joining any professional or economic organization.

Until Schacht is 80 he will be unable to hold any position socially or economically aside from the role of common laborer.

In imposing the prison sentence, the court took into account the two years that Schacht already has been in custody, thereby reducing his actual term to six years.

If Schacht's health permits he will be compelled to perform some sort of labor during his prison term.

Rt. Rev. A. R. Beverley New Bishop Of Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — Rt. Rev. Alton Ray Beverley, Suffragan Bishop of Toronto, Monday night was elected Bishop of the Anglican diocese of Toronto, succeeding Archbishop Derwyn T. Owen, who died April 9.

The genial bishop-elect had served as suffragan since 1934, while Archbishop Owen was Primate of All Canada, was elected on the second ballot by a synod meeting attended by 209 clerical members and 340 members of the laity.

Born in 1884, Bishop Beverley is a native of Dorchester, Ont., a Middlesex County village about 10 miles east of London.

On the second ballot, 111 of 209 clergy votes were cast for the bishop-elect, and 223 of 340 lay votes. A majority vote would have required 105 clerical votes and 171 laity votes.

Bishop George F. Kingston of Nova Scotia was second in both houses' balloting, having received 90 clerical votes and 104 lay votes.

Bishop Beverley is a son of the late Rev. A. L. Beverley, former rector of St. Mark's Church, London, Ont. He graduated from Wycliffe College, University of Toronto.

Wrong Regrets Acheson Retirement

WASHINGTON (CP) — Hume Wrong, Canadian Ambassador to the U.S. and friend of Dean Acheson, retiring Under-Secretary of State, today regarded the official's resignation "with great regret."

Ambassador Wrong, when advised Acheson's resignation had been accepted Monday by President Truman, said:

"I regard his impending departure from the State Department with great regret both on personal and official grounds."

Acheson is closely attached to Canada by ties of blood and friendship. He is the son of Eleanor Gooderham, daughter of the late George Gooderham and Harriet Dean of Toronto. His father, who came to Canada from Britain as a youth, was Edward Campion Acheson.

Monday the President announced he would nominate Robert A. Lovett of New York, former assistant secretary of war, to succeed Acheson.

Acheson spent much of his time as a youth in Canada and has many relatives in Toronto and vicinity. At one time, when he had an ambition to be a railway man, he worked a few months as a section hand on the old Grand Trunk.

Anti-Liquor Drive In B.C. Largest Yet

VANCOUVER (CP)—The largest anti-liquor campaign in the history of British Columbia was inaugurated here today following a combined rally of temperances forces Monday night.

Sponsored by the B.C. Temperance League, the rally decided upon a "continuous campaign of planned education to publicize the disorder, crime and juvenile delinquency related to alcoholism." The league this year has a $10,000 budget, more than three times last year's allocation.

"Owl" liquor stores were condemned in a resolution which urged that the sale of liquor "be limited to reasonable business hours, not more than eight hours a day and that no all-night stores be allowed." Plans were made to enroll total abstainers throughout the province, a return to the signing of the "pledge."

Support for "any legislation that will restrict the use of alcohol" was pledged by the massed groups.

Placement Of Signs Discussed In Court

Evan H. Hanbury, a motorist, appeared before Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court Monday, and contested his case of making a U-turn at the corner of Quadra and View Streets.

He told the magistrate that the "No-turn" sign at that corner was so placed that it could not be seen properly. He claimed this was the case at many intersections.

Evidence of a constable proved that there was a sign at this corner.

Magistrate Hall said if signs were improperly placed, it was a matter which should be taken up with the police commission. "It is of no concern to this court. Since the sign was there, I must fine you $5," he said.

Canada Leads Dominions In Gifts To United Kingdom

LONDON (CP) — No other Dominion has approached Canada in the value of gifts to the United Kingdom through mutual aid and the writing-off of debts, it was shown in a Commons return tabled by Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

He said mutual aid from Canada continued to Sept. 1, 1945, and from April 1, 1945, was valued at $670,000,000, the equivalent of £150,000,000. There was no separate figure for the period beginning Aug. 1, 1945.

Under a financial agreement signed March, 6, 1946, the Canadian government agreed to cancel an amount of $425,000,000 which the minister said was the equivalent of £96,000,000, owing by the United Kingdom under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan.

On March 5, 1947, the Australian government announced a gift of £25,000,000 (Australian), which the Chancellor said was equivalent to £20,000,000 (British), as a contribution to the war cost incurred by Britain in and around the Pacific. The sum had not been received, but would be applied to the redemption of debt by Britain.

The New Zealand government on March 5 announced a gift of £12,500,000 (New Zealand), equivalent to £10,000,000 (British).

South African residents contributed £1,180,000 (British, as a gift to the United Kingdom.

Russia Expecting Big Food Surplus

LONDON (AP)—Harold Wilson, head of the recent British trade delegation to Russia, told the House of Commons Monday Russia expects to have a "very considerable" food surplus, especially of grain, beginning next year.

The Russians also plan for moderate exportable supplies of timber, he said.

The British delegation asked Russia to accept "the general terms and conditions of contract" under which Britain does business with the rest of the world, he said. The Soviet, in return, said Anglo-Russian trade development would be impossible without some adjustment of terms on credits advanced to Russia in 1941.

19,000,000 Under Arms Says Expert

NEW YORK (AP)—Hanson W. Baldwin, military writer for the New York Times, said in an article in the newspaper Monday that almost 19,000,000 men are under arms throughout the world today and that about 40 countries are spending $27,400,000,000 annually for armaments.

Baldwin arrived at these figures following an unofficial world military survey which he said indicated the powers were "spending perhaps $10,000,000,000 more on armaments than they did on the eve of war in 1938."

B.C. Coast Loggers Still Negotiating On Saturday Work

VANCOUVER (CP) — The failure of some British Columbia coastal loggers to work on Saturdays apparently is still acting as a stumbling block in negotiations for a 1947 agreement between lumber operators and the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.).

Representatives of employers and union met again Monday to continue negotiations. R. V. Stuart, spokesman for the employers, told union officials that guarantees of union fulfilment of whatever contract terms are finally agreed upon are still regarded by employers as highly essential to a satisfactory contract.

Stuart said the number of loggers at work last Saturday was somewhat improved over previous Saturdays. He added, however, several of the larger operations on the east coast of Vancouver Island still are losing the sixth day of the summer work week through failure of the I.W.A. locals involved to live up to the terms of the 1946 contract.

SUMMER, WINTER PLANS

Under the 1946 contract, loggers were to work not more than 40 hours a week during winter months, and not more than 48 hours a week during summer months.

In April, the loggers continued to work only five days a week and an arbitration board was called on to settle the dispute. The board ruled that loggers should work 48 hours a week during the summer and the union accepted the ruling, under protest.

Cost Of Living Bonus Boosted By 85 Per Cent

NANKING (AP) — China's Executive Yuan decided today to raise the income of government employees and soldiers, giving employees an average boost of 85 per cent in cost-of-living allowances and earmarking 175,000,000,000 Chinese dollars ($14,580,000) monthly for pay increases for the armed forces.

The civilian bonuses were estimated at 125,000,000,000 Chinese dollars a month ($10,416,000).

Students of the National Central University in Nanking, 60 per cent of whom are supported by the government, struck for unspecified increases in living allowances.

Vicar In Trouble Over Secret Marriage

NEEDHAM MARKET, Eng. (Reuter) — Rev. Hargreave Thomas, a vicar in this Suffolk region who advocated that in view of the manpower shortage the stigma be removed from responsible unmarried women having babies, is in hot water again—this time with the War Office.

His statement about babies a couple of months ago caused an uproar, and now a secret marriage which he performed between a local girl and a former member of the German Wehrmacht, now a prisoner of war, is the cause of the War Office inquiry.

Mr. Thomas said he had promised not to divulge details, but he knew of other such marriages.

The marriage is strictly legal, said the War Office, but added the German bridegroom can get into serious trouble.

British girls who contract marriages with German prisoners of war can be deported to Germany when their husbands are repatriated.

Seaman's Union May Boycott Quebec

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Seamen's Union announced Monday that President Harry Davis had sent a telegram to Premier Duplessis stating that unless the "illegal and un-Canadian tactics" of the provincial police are halted, Davis is considering "immediate recommendation to our executive that our organization take steps at once to stop all Canadian shipping entering the ports of the province of Quebec."

"The Canadian Seamen's Union demands the immediate release of two seamen illegally arrested by your provincial police while walking peacefully on the street at Lachute," the telegram said.

The union said the seamen were arrested early today while walking down a Lachute street to join the United Textile Workers of America (A.F.L.) picket line outside the Ayers Ltd. woolens plant, where a strike for wage increases began five weeks ago.

The use of lemon juice by sailors in the British Navy was made obligatory as an anti-scurvy tonic in 1795.

Crashes Helicopter To Save Crowd

U.S. Navy Lieut. David Gershowitz is shown (upper photo) bringing his helicopter in for a landing as 300 high school pupils watch. Coming in too low, Gershowitz hit his rear rotary propeller on the ground and the damaged craft headed into the crowd. To avoid hitting them the pilot pulled up and went into a spin and crashed. Coast Guardsmen rushed out with fire extinguishers (lower photo) after the crash. The pilot, whose quick action probably saved the lives of many of the students, was not injured.

THE LESSON OF T.B.

THE VALUE OF THE X-RAY CHEST examinations given free of charge to citizens of this community this year is clearly indicated in the report made public by Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson, city health officer, this week. It is worthy of note that only 10 active cases of tuberculosis were found among the 15,442 individuals examined. That represents an incidence of approximately .6 per 1,000 against the provincial average of 1.5 per 1,000 for the year 1945.

Through the discoveries made in the last check, ten people in this community will be able to secure attention without further delay. Their chances of recovery will be immensely enhanced. And, of wider importance, their unwitting spread of the disease will be curtailed. These are obvious benefits of preventive measures. The results of the survey have two other major implications. During the last campaign, 15,442 men, women and children were tested. This community has a population of approximately 100,000. There appears no reason why the advantages of this service should not be extended to the other 84,500 in the area. Its merits are apparent, and there can be no valid objection to the minor inconvenience incurred by the individual.

The results of the campaign and the success it has achieved to date have a secondary value in proving the effectiveness of an enlightened approach to the fight against disease. A relatively few years ago, tuberculosis was an ailment screened from the public behind a false sense of modesty. It was not discussed in polite society. Cases were hidden away. Now the fight is conducted in the open and pressed home. By the same token an enlightened public opinion is beginning to facilitate the attack on other scourges of mankind. Currently cancer is in the limelight and all citizens in this country are being advised to take common-sense measures to avert its lethal effects by early and systematic physical examinations. Eventually an informed public will beat back this killer just as tuberculosis has been beaten back. Similarly a changed attitude to venereal disease is beginning to yield better results to those who seek to eradicate it. Public education and support are the essentials of final success.

FINAL RECKONING?

THE MAN WHOSE FINANCIAL GENIUS was put to the service of Hitler during the Nazi Fuehrer's rise to full international power has been sentenced by the German denazification court at Stuttgart to eight years in prison. The term is not particularly excessive, but for 70-year-old Hjalmar Schacht the sentence and its accompanying restrictions may well raise doubts over the benefits of his acquittal at Nuernberg seven months ago.

The aging former finance minister will be left only $1,000 of his $119,000 personal fortune, will be banned from voting or participation in other political activity, excluded from any professional or economic organization, and reduced to the social and economic level of a common German laborer. Whether or not Schacht outlives his prison sentence, to be served with hard labor, there will be little incentive for him to continue into the future that has been planned for him. The man who reassembled Germany's economic machinery to enable Hitler to further his dreams of grandeur has ended on the scrap pile of life. Living or dead, the Nazis have left no trailing clouds of glory.

FOR HIS SUCCESSOR

THE SPEECH OF DEAN ACHESON, United States Under-Secretary of State, at Cleveland last Thursday, might well be viewed as a summary of the problems with which his successor, Robert A. Lovett, will have to cope, consequent upon Mr. Acheson's resignation effective June 30. The retiring 55-year-old official delivered a masterly outline of the American international trade picture in that address—a fitting effort with which to close a long career in various public offices. It was well known that he had wished to retire two years ago to take up his private law practice, but stayed on at presidential request. More recently, the resignation of Secretary of State James Byrnes further delayed the Under-Secretary's departure. He agreed to remain in office until General Marshall had a firm grasp of the reins.

With United States exports for 1947 estimated at $16,000,000,000 and imports only half that, Mr. Acheson in his Cleveland speech foresaw heavy American financial commitments extending over a period of several years at least, if Europe is to be enabled to continue buying sorely-needed United States goods. He enumerated five factors which must guide future United States policy at home and abroad if global rehabilitation efforts are to be successful.

The United States, he said, must import as large a volume of goods as possible in order to help foreign countries pay for their American purchases; further large loans to overseas countries will be necessary (terminating hopes that existing loans will prove sufficient); emergency assistance must be concentrated in areas "where it will be most effective . . . in promoting human freedom and democratic institutions;" Germany and Japan, the "two great workshops of Europe and Asia," must be put on their feet; and government control of certain exports and domestic sales will have to be retained still longer in order to facilitate the other requirements.

The speech provided nothing new in United States recognition of responsibility and necessity to aid the economic recovery of the world for reasons of peace and security no less than trade. But it stressed a newer thought in American international planning—the realization that financial aid involving tremendous sums can be no short-term plan but an undertaking extending over several years, if stability is to be achieved and retained both at home and abroad.

PALESTINE VICTORY—$7,500,000

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR A FREE Palestine, Inc., has fixed the price for achievement of its cause in the Holy Land. "Seven and one half million dollars applied now in the right places will win the Battle of Palestine," says a phrase in its current advertising.

That would be a small sum for equitable settlement of trouble in that vexed country. But the campaign conducted by The American League for a Free Palestine, Inc., will scarcely win the confidence of those who are looking for a just solution of the problem. It refers to the execution of Dov Gruner, one of the underground tried and hanged following outrages. Says the advertisement:

Dov Gruner was murdered—"Hanged by the neck until dead." It was a sneak murder. The British thought they could pick off Gruner and his three fellow patriots of the Hebrew Underground while the world wasn't watching. But the world—especially America—was alert. The killing of Gruner will not be forgotten. In America it will be remembered by swift action to help build the only monument that can have meaning for Gruner—a democratic Hebrew Republic in an unshackled Palestine."

Then comes the price, "$7,500,000 applied now in the right places." This is published while the United Nations special committee is in session, seeking to establish the machinery to achieve an arrangement equitable to the peoples concerned.

The price for victory set by the American League for a Free Palestine, Inc. is cheap—but not nearly so cheap as the advertising it uses.

OUT OF CONTROL

ANOTHER INDICATION OF THE EFfects of atomic bomb explosion is contained in the report that ten months after the Bikini blasts the target ships are still not safe for human beings to occupy permanently. Workers using special safeguards may stay aboard the ships for only limited periods, although the experts say the contamination will not endanger the seaports where the vessels will be brought for examination.

This fact, together with the long-lasting effects of atomic blast on the human body, lends a new horror to the thought of war. For long after a conflict was over and the actual shooting had ceased, atomic war would relentlessly continue of its own momentum. Ships and buildings would continue to emit lethal barrages; humans would exhibit ever new manifestations of their subjection to the rays, extending even into future generations—if any.

Famine, disease and misery have always provided the aftermath of war. But now man has created a juggernaut which once started would roll on despite his efforts to stop it—a physical force which would not recognize signed armistices or agreements. Atomic energy would not "know the war is over." Our only hope is not to start one.

PASSAGE FOR SCOUTS

SOME TIME BEFORE NEXT AUGUST, IT is safe to predict, means will be found to convey 30 Canadian Boy Scouts, including Oak Bay's young Macgregor Macintosh, to the World Scout Jamboree near Paris. At present, difficulties in securing accommodation for the Atlantic crossing impede completion of arrangements for the participation of this Dominion's delegation in the event. Nor will Scout leaders be inclined to ignore the fact that passage may not be secured as easily as it was, for instance, in prewar days.

At the same time, when authorities in charge of allocating passenger space have given the matter the attention it should be accorded, some means should be found to overcome existing difficulties. The work of Boy Scouts in various parts of the world needs little elaboration here. The movement is one claiming respect from all interested in the development of healthy young bodies and sound minds and the creation in them of high ideals. The fact that the World Jamboree represents the zenith of experience to many who have participated in the activities of the Scouts is sufficient to justify special consideration for a nation's representatives on virtually any priority list.

Various schemes have been suggested to provide passage for the Canadians. And the determination to see that this Dominion is given representation at Paris should be a sufficient guarantee that the boys will make the trip. If someone must be "bumped" from July sailings, surely there are many with less deserving claims than the Boy Scouts.

Walter Lippmann

ON BORROWED TIME

WHAT MR. ACHESON said in his address before the Delta Council about Germany and Japan was incidental and subordinate to his main theme: that in the next few months, certainly within 12 months, the United States will have to reestablish in some form or other lend-lease at the rate of not less than five billions annually for several years to come. Mr. Acheson did not put it so bluntly, feeling constrained no doubt by the political habits of Washington, which demand that the people be treated gingerly and as not adult enough for the whole truth all at once, and that it is less painful to cut off the dog's tail by inches.

Mr. Acheson did, nevertheless, manage to indicate the scope of the whole problem which will have to be met if a catastrophic collapse of the European standard of life is to be averted, and if America is not to become isolated in an angry world, and itself the sufferer of a chronic depression. The Administration will never regret that it commissioned Mr. Acheson to make this speech. The warning signals have been raised while there is still time to avert a collapse. If the measures which it calls for are taken, they may carry the world over the hump of danger and into a time of reconstruction and of peace.

THAT A WORLD CRISIS is developing, which will come to its climax not later than the latter part of 1948, is one of those predictions which only a miracle—that cannot happen—could confound. The world is now drawing goods from the United States at the rate of 16 billions annually. A very small part of these goods may be luxuries and comforts which could be dispensed with. Practically all of this huge export consists of commodities which are absoluetely necessary to sustain an exceedingly low standard of life abroad. They are not really sufficient to maintain more than a bare subsistence level of existence for the masses of the people abroad. Without them there would be actual famine, not merely malnutrition as there is today, and social anarchy in many parts of the world.

HALF OF THESE exports the foreign countries are able to pay for with goods and services they have worked to produce. The other half—about $8,000,000,000—are not being paid for now out of their earnings. A little over $1,000,000,000 they are paying for out of their dwindling reserves of dollars and gold. Another $2,000,000,000 or thereabouts are being covered by remittances of Americans to friends and relatives abroad and by private investments abroad. The remainder—about $5,000,000,000—is coming out of funds provided by the United States government—in direct relief, through credits of the Export-Import Bank, through the Bretton Woods institutions, and the British loan.

There will still be available under authorizations and commitments already made by the United States government about 4.5 billions for 1948. But the world need for American exports cannot diminish in 1948. The losses this year from the terrible weather in Europe mean that there is no possibility of the need diminishing until there have been two good harvests. The financial resources of Europe, are, however, declining: the small reserves of gold and dollars are nearly used up, and cannot be replenished.

THEREFORE, it is—one may say—a mathematical certainty that in the second half of 1948—as American government loans and grants-in-aid are used up—that a crisis of famine and unemployment will develop. No means will exist—unless the United States government appropriates new money—to pay for the American exports that the world cannot do without.

As a matter of fact the social and political crisis will develop before the last dollar has been used up. None of the great governments involved—the British and the French particularly—can wait until the day when—on the mathematical calculation—the crisis actually exists. They must anticipate it as the British did this winter in their withdrawal from Greece and Turkey. If the United States waits with her measures until their dollars are exhausted, they will have to take radical measures at home and abroad before all their dollars are exhausted.

There is, therefore, not much time left in which to plan the policy and prepare the measures that the situation, outlined by Mr. Acheson, will unavoidably require.

THE ADMINISTRATION will do well to address itself to the adult and informed population of the United States, and to assume that the American people would rather hear the truth than be jazzed up and needled by rhetoric, and that they will do their duty when they are presented with a well prepared plan for discharging their duty.

"The Administration," says Mr. Reston in what I am sure is a true report, "is not happy about the emotional response here and abroad to the military and ideological aspects of the Truman Doctrine." The emotional response was bound to be bad because the emotional content of the "doctrine" was not enlightening but inflammatory. In the immense task, which lies ahead, of devising adequate measures in time to pacify and reconstruct the civilized world, the rhetoric of the Truman message is something to be avoided. The tone and temper of the Marshall, Dulles, and Acheson speeches are something to be adhered to.

Situation Still Normal

Wasted On The Desert Air

By JAMES THRASHER, from New York.

THE RUSSIAN radio broadcasts four and a half hours a day to North America in English and Yiddish, a report from Washington states. We hazard a guess that that is news to about 97.4 per cent of Americans—the other 2.6 being government employees who listen as part of their job, and Communists and their friends who listen to be convinced of what they already believe.

Otherwise, we fear that Radio Moscow is bumping up against an iron curtain over here. It is not that Americans mean to be discourteous. The exploited serfs of a decadent, imperialistic government would just rather listen to Bob Hope and Fibber McGee.

If Americans did happen to hear one of the Soviet broadcasts, however, we fear that they would either be unimpressed or unbelieving. For they certainly would be told that the American government is undemocratic, expansionist, and reactionary. The Russian government would certainly be pictured as a spotless, misunderstood champion of democracy and freedom. Perhaps it's narrow-minded but we would be inclined to say, "Nuts."

By the same token we are pretty sure that the U.S. State Department's "Voice of America" broadcasts do not have many Russian listeners. The Soviet Union has less than one radio receiver for every 1,000 people. Those who do hear the broadcasts probably say, "Nuts," too. If they do not, there is always Ilya Ehrenburg to review the broadcasts in Pravda and say it for them.

All this is too bad. But in the present state of affairs it cannot be helped. It is not entirely a matter of truth or untruth. Official American and Russian opinion can differ so widely and sincerely on the same issues as to give the impression of falsehood on the other side.

SKEPTICISM

It is perfectly natural, then, for the average American to sprinkle salt heavily on any Russian broadcast before sampling it—if indeed he ever gets close enough to sample. And the average Russian is bound to approach an American broadcast with skepticism and suspicion. In a society as insulated as his, where thought is so severely directed and doubt so thoroughly squelched, it could not be otherwise.

So it seems that as far as broadcasts to Russia are concerned, all the current grief over a possible end of the State Department broadcasts is so much wasted weeping. However carefully and objectively the scripts were prepared, there isn't much chance any Russians have been weaned away from the official Soviet line. And little good it would have done them if they had been.

UNFRIENDLY

Russians live under a dictatorship. They think and do, politically, what they are told. Any change must come from the Kremlin. And before that there must be a better understanding between Moscow and Washington. Until then, any American broadcasts to the Russian people, and vice versa, will be received as unfriendly propaganda and treated accordingly.

Eliminating Guess Work

B.C. Research Council

TO ENSURE SAFETY, the builders of bridges, machines, or trolley buses have, in the past, been obliged to use greatly oversize parts wherever strains could not be calculated accurately. The increased size, weight and cost that result have long been a serious problem.

Today the electric strain gauge can eliminate the guesswork. Strains can be measured in almost anything from rotating shafts to pressure cookers. This equipment is provided by the British Columbia Research Council for the use of British Columbia industry.

DELICATE INSTRUMENT

The heart of the electric strain indicator is a tiny wire gauge which is firmly glued to the surface of the object to be tested. As the surface expands or contracts with the imposed stress, the wire stretches or shortens an equal amount. The almost infinitesimal changes in the electrical resistance of the wire are amplified and measured. Rapid stress changes such as occur in the presence of vibration are recorded on an oscilloscope.

In the production of logging donkeys, strain gauges recently proved their value. When a Vancouver firm asked the council to check the load capacities of its product, it was found that the operating capacity at which the donkeys had been rated was actually much less than the load they could safely carry. As a result it is now possible to guarantee much higher performance, benefiting both the manufacturer and the customer.

VERSATILE

Electric strain gauges are small and economical, and the measurements, fast and accurate. Examples of their versatility include the measurement of the torque in a shaft, the pressure surges in a pipe, the stresses in a metal plate during welding, the load imposed on a beam. They provide the engineer with invaluable information.

The words most often wasted are the ones men use to tell the barber exactly how they want their hair cut.

Letters To The Editor

BUTTER PRICE

It appears to me there is undue indignation over the rise in the price of butter to 55 cents per pound. When I was in England and Jersey, C.I., in 1920, we paid 2s 6d per pound for New Zealand butter (60 cents) and 3s for local farm-churned butter, and that was in the days of much lower costs of living than is general today, there or anywhere. Of course there was margarine from 10d a pound up to 1s 6d, according to quality. But all were inferior to present-day margarine. Cooking butter (salty and inferior) could be got for 1s 10d, about 48 cents. As I see it, 60 cents would be a fair and reasonable price for butter in Canada, but no more.

D.V.A. MEDICAL TREATMENT

In your issue of Wednesday, May 7, I read with disgust the following extract of an alleged statement made by Dr. Leonard A. Griffith, D.V.A. Vancouver Island Medical Supervisor, quote:

"Discharged service personnel who have been under the impression that every Tom, Dick and Joe who served in two world wars are eligible for admittance to the new $1,000,000 Victoria Veterans' Hospital after being back on Civvy Street more than a year are mistaken."

Surely Dr. Griffith can find a more appropriate term for these gallant men who gave even their health in those days, now apparently forgotten? I have heard them addressed as heroes, prior to V.E. Day.

Tom, Dick and Joe, forsooth!

CALLING OLD BUDDIES

I should like to get in touch with some of my ex-comrades of the 260th C.R. who served with me in Siberia. We were formed at Camp Willmott, Victoria. I am also a vet of Vimy Ridge and I served three years in this last war, leaving Vancouver in 1939 and joined the British army. I served about two years in the M.E., was torpedoed Oct 10, 1942 and the ship sunk by enemy action. Well, sir, enough of my war services. I would like to get in touch with Cpl. Nelson, who lost a leg after the war, also a Mr. Cornwall, V.C., Sgt. Smith and one or two young women I used to know in Victoria.

I hope some of my old comrades in Victoria will write me.

Asked why restaurant food is "so awful," an Ottawa cafe owner who attended the Canadian Restaurant Association convention at Toronto last week gave this answer: "The reason is that most Canadians don't appreciate good food. ENIGMA AT NOTTINGHAM

The Times of London

"A skull left in a Nottingham bus was sold for four shillings." The report taken from "News in Brief" column of a contemporary is undeniably news and could hardly be briefer; not a word is superfluous to the main theme, which is developed with logic, dignity, and precision. If a criticism may be ventured, it is that the narrative is almost too terse; having been told so much, we, or anyhow some of us, would like to have been told a little more.

Suppositions open a vista of possibilities so limitless that perhaps even the student of human nature, faint but pursuing, may feel that "News in Brief" was, perhaps, after all, the art-form best suited to the curious, but rather unmanageable, story of the skull.

CONFUSING SIGNS

Washington Post

To many a first-time visitor, district parking signs must serve to confirm the legend of confusion often associated with Washington politically. We have big signs and little signs, green signs and red signs, painted signs and chalk signs, legible signs and signs of a kind that would make an eye specialist cringe. We have signs mounted on posts, signs tacked on buildings and signs wrapped obscurely around long-suffering trees. On some streets we have no signs at all. We have restricted areas and we have parking meters. We have plain curbs and red curbs and yellow curbs and some curbs that are a delicately mottled in-between. The sum of all this wondrous maze is enough to make the timid tourist turn turtle and flee. If our signs were explicitly designed to promote chaos, we could hardly do better. Traffic Director Keneipp has called most of the signs "illegible, illegal and illogical." That is an understatement. The important news is that he has decided to do something about them.

Help For the Crippled

Australian News

A COLONY is being developed in Australia where crippled children are being mentally equipped to take their place in society. It is a 26-acre "farm hospital" at Campbelltown, New South Wales.

The children who go to the farm home make mental and physical progress that astounds everyone. They learn to do things for themselves and are encouraged by the company of children who have similar handicaps. They live, go to school and play with other crippled children in the best possible conditions.

The farm was established in 1939 when a two-story home and farm land was donated to the New South Wales Society for Crippled Children. During the war, staff shortages were a handicap, but an ambitious set of blueprints is now becoming a reality. Most of the produce to feed the children is grown on the farm.

Physiotherapists treat the children on the farm, and take them to city doctors. Plans provide for a resident doctor and dentist. The children have a residential school teacher appointed by the Department of Education.

Victoria College Issues Pass List For 600 Students

Scholarships Will Await End Of Ex-Service Class

Victoria College today released the names of some 600 students who had been successful in the April examinations.

The college said announcement of all scholarships would be withheld until early in July so that the ex-service class, which began in January and will end in June, may be able to compete for these awards.

Students entitled to supplementals may improve their standings by writing the examinations in September. Those who, because of illness, have been granted deferred examinations, may likewise write these at the time of the September supplementals.

Students who intend to proceed to applied science at the University of British Columbia, having completed the work of the first year in arts and science but having failed to obtain the standing required in certain subjects for admission to applied science, may likewise remove deficiencies by taking the September examinations.

SUPPLEMENTALS

Supplementals have been granted students in subjects taken during the term provided marks of not less than 30 per cent were obtained in the final examination. A candidate, however, is not granted supplementals in more than six units of work.

All students who may write supplementals will receive written notification from the registrar's office.

The college has set four classifications in the general pass list of full and conditioned undergraduates. The classifications are:

1. First Class—80 per cent or more.
2. Second Class—65 to 79 per cent.
3. Passed—50 to 64 per cent.
4. Passed with supplementals.

Partial students are not classified in this schedule and their names are listed under the heading "passed in certain subjects."

General pass lists follow:

March, Laughton In 'Les Miserables'

One of the screen's most memorable triumphs returns today to the Dominion Theatre when Darryl F. Zanuck's unforgettable classic, "Les Miserables," opens for a return engagement with Frederic March and Charles Laughton in starring roles.

March is superb in his portrayal of Victor Hugo's hero, Jean Valjean, who is imprisoned for five years because he stole a loaf of bread and who, upon his release, finds himself hunted and hounded by the sinister police detective, Javert. Charles Laughton, in the latter role, is brilliant as he methodically, sadistically and inexorably pursues his innocent quarry.

ROYAL THEATRE

Movies are often unpredictable. Take, for instance, a sequence in RKO Radio's new technicolor spectacle, "Sinbad the Sailor," starring Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Maureen O'Hara and Walter Slezak, which is now at the Royal Theatre. The script called for an elaborate wedding gown for Maureen, but she refuses to wear it—in the story, that is. Designed by Edward Stevenson, the gown cost $2,000. Made of rich pre-war brocade and adorned with jewels and other costly gew-gaws, it required the labor of six wardrobe women working steadily for a whole month.

Loder Featured As Maniacal Strangler

John Loder has a unique role in RKO Radio's exciting drama, "The Brighton Strangler," which is now at the Rio Theatre. He starts out as the hero of the picture and, through accident, turns into a maniacal strangler. Co-featured with him is June Duprez.

Loder made his first screen appearance with the German company, UFA, in 1927 and has made pictures in central Europe and his native England as well as in Hollywood. He served through World War I as the youngest combat officer in the British Army and was taken prisoner in France in 1918.

ATLAS THEATRE

Bette Davis, Paul Henreid and Claude Rains comprise the star trio of Warner Bros.' new romantic drama, "Deception," which is at the Atlas Theatre. Based on a play by Louis Verneuil, the motion picture tells the highly dramatic story of a woman who loves two men.

Directed by Irving Rapper and produced by Henry Blanke, the film play was written by John Collier and Joseph Than and boasts an impressive musical score including a number of classics, in addition to an original concerto by Erich Wolfgang Korngold.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Made into a screenplay by N. Richard Nash, it was adapted from an original story by Paul Webster and Jack Sobell. The film was directed by Vincent Sherman and produced by William Jacobs.

The music, under the direction of Franz Waxman, features two songs, which were written for Miss Sheridan, by Jack Scholl and M. K. Jerome.

Modern Athletes Outshine Champions Of Yesteryear

There is absolutely no argument to the question often asked: "Do you think modern athletes can beat the old timers of yesteryear?" if you compare track and field performances of both eras with a measuring rod such as a steel tape or stop watch, Archie McKinnon, track and field and swimming coach of the Y.M.C.A., said in an address to members of the Gyro Club Monday.

In comparing athletic progress we invariably turn to the greatest athletic carnival of all times, the Olympic Games. Records compiled by Olympic winners from 1896 through until 1936 in all branches of track and field show conclusively that the modern athlete is better than his predecessor. In fighting or team games it is difficult to tell, as there is no means of comparing performances in these fields of athletic endeavors.

In making comparisons between the old time greats and the present champions, one must remember that the athlete of today still has the same equipment to work with, two arms, two legs, two eyes to co-ordinate and two lungs for an engine, McKinnon said.

In 1896 T. E. Burke of the United States won the 100-metre dash in 12 seconds flat. Today the modern record is 10.3. The modern champion is one and seven-tenths seconds faster, or approximately 17 to 20 yards faster over the 100-metre distance, he said.

This comparison is also true in the 1500 metres. In 1896 the time was 4:33.2. Today's record is approximately . . . 14 seconds and over 100 yards better than the mark turned in before the turn of the century. The same is true in the 10,000 metres, the present time being one and one-half minutes faster.

In field events the difference is more noticeable. The winning high jump mark in 1896 was 5 feet 11½ inches. Les Steers of Oregon holds the present day record of 6 feet 10½ inches. The shot put record has almost been doubled in the last 50 years. The Olympic winning toss in 1896 was 36 feet 2 inches; today it is 56 feet. Cornelius Warmerdan's pole vault mark of 15 feet 10 inches is five feet better than the 1896 record, while the broad jump distance has been increased from 20 feet 9 inches to 26 feet 11 inches.

McKinnon proceeded to point out differences in performances in the realm of aquatics. In 1896 a one and one-half front somersault was considered tough. Today divers are doing a two and one-half, one and one-half double twisting somersault and a one and one-half back double twister.

The world's swimming records today are seconds better than previous Olympic times. The 100 metre freestyle mark has been lowered by 17 seconds. The 400 metres freestyle is one minute and nine seconds faster in the women's event and one and one-half minutes faster in the men's quarter mile.

McKinnon replied to various questions put to him by Gyro Club members and gave as his reason for these improvements in the athletic field: Better conditioning, better coaching, higher standards of living and improved tracks and methods.

Some Merchants Discount Influence Of Buyers' Strike

By Canadian Press

Some western merchants today attributed a slackening of business to "shopping instead of grabbing" rather than to inroads made by housewives who last week started a month-long buyers' strike in protest against high prices.

In Vancouver, however, a spokesman for the B.C. Housewives Consumers' Association contested this belief, declaring women shoppers were "definitely not out buying" as their campaign for slashed prices gained momentum.

Mrs. Mona Morgan, vice-president of the B.C. Association, said a chain telephone campaign, spreading from neighborhood to neighborhood, was increasing the number of housewives supporting the shopping ban.

Western merchants generally agreed the campaign — which opened Saturday in cities of the prairies and B.C.—has not yet been in operation long enough to prove its effectiveness.

Striking housewives predicted, however, that by the end of this week definite drops will be noted in the sale of commodities whose prices they claim are too high.

Officials of the Manitoba Housewives' Association said they are expecting Ontario groups to join the ban shortly.

New Soapless VEL Keeps Woolens Softer
by Frances Thompson
noted homemaking authority

Yes it's a fact—the unusual mildness of soapless VEL makes it an ideal cleanser for all kinds of woolens. As you know, many soaps contain alkalis which can be very unkind to woolen fibres and tend to cause "matting". But soapless VEL is a neutral product containing no alkali—that's why it leaves wool soft and fluffy and helps give woolen garments longer life.
NEVER WRING WOOLENS
Woolens should always be washed with care—quick washing, gentle squeezing and lukewarm water are "musts". Never rub or twist woolens. VEL dissolves instantly in lukewarm water making it act as soft as rain water.
NO SUDS NEEDED
Using a slightly lesser amount than soap, try VEL for your favourite sweater, Dad's socks, or baby's blankets and woolens. Put the VEL into basin first then add lukewarm water. But remember—unlike soap VEL needs no suds! Its quick-forming suds don't last so don't be disappointed. There's no need to add more VEL as the lack of suds has no effect on the cleaning power of the almost sudless water. Because VEL is not a soap and doesn't act like a soap it leaves no soap film so rinsing is easier and quicker. So VEL's a time-saver too!

Junior Chamber Of Commerce Sponsors Drive For Beautification Of Victoria

Mayor Commends Paint-up Campaign

MAYOR PERCY GEORGE

who today commended the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the enthusiasm with which it is waging the clean-up, paint-up campaign and urged citizens to co-operate.

The value of clean-up or beautification campaigns has long been recognized in Victoria, where for many years a campaign has been held under the auspices of that public spirited group of young business men known as the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce. The first campaigns were only one-day affairs, but the idea was sound, and attracted the attention of many outstanding citizens, who made public appeals on behalf of the campaigns. In later years a whole week was set aside and publicly proclaimed by the mayor as Clean-Up Week.

In the United States, clean-up programs have been operated in hundreds of communities for over a quarter of a century. Canadians have driven across the border in thousands in recent years and have marveled at the neat, well-kept appearance of farms and homes; the landscaping of boulevards and highways; the safety lighting of their streets and traffic intersections.

On the other hand, American tourists visiting Canada are impressed not only with our genuine hospitality, which is unquestionably good, but also with unpainted appearance of barns and houses and buildings.

ON NATIONAL SCALE

This disturbing situation was discussed at length at the National Convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Hamilton in 1945, and delegates representing all parts of Canada recommended that a national beautification campaign should be sponsored by that body. A committee was set up, resulting in the first National Canadian Beautification campaign held in May 1946. Their job was to encourage groups in communities all over the country to organize campaigns at the same time. Assistance was given to these groups by bulletins and instruction books, and publicity material was purchased in bulk and sold at cost so that every community in Canada, no matter how small, could avail themselves of promotional material at low cost.

The results of this campaign exceeded the fondest hopes of its sponsors and represented a milestone in the history of civic progress in Canada.

In 1945 only six or seven towns sponsored clean-up campaigns in Canada. In 1946 under the national sponsorship 158 communities, including every large town in Canada, organized civic campaigns and the message of clean-up, paint-up, plant-up, light-up, was carried to every home in the Dominion.

The public acceptance of the beautification campaign and its ever growing success as an established Canadian institution are due to its public service as a community-wide movement.

Clean-up Lessens Fire Hazards

FIRE CHIEF J. RAYMOND

who points out how fire hazards can be reduced during paint-up week.

Clean-Up Helps In Fire Prevention Says Chief Raymond

"The campaign sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to 'clean-up,' 'paint-up' serves to supplement and assist the year-long fire prevention program of this department," says Fire Chief Raymond.

"Co-operation by the citizens of Victoria in this campaign will result in the removal of many fire hazards, and this materially helps this department.

"Probably 90 per cent of home fires would be prevented by cleaning out rubbish and collections of unnecessary combustible materials and by the correction of other obvious fire hazards. While cleaning up I would recommend:

"1. Removal of all rubbish, oily rags and refuse which may ignite spontaneously.

"2. Check over the heating system, see that no combustibles are exposed to heat.

"3. Examine roof, note if shingles are in good shape, or if old, powdered and moss covered.

"4. Check your electric cords and other equipment for fraying and defects.

"5. Provide metal receptacles for ashes or other refuse and institute a regular system of removal.

"Clean up and keep clean and avoid fire."

Automobile Dealers To Discuss Sale Of Second-Hand Cars

J. M. Wood, vice-president of the Victoria Automobile Association, said today a meeting called for tonight may discuss an advertising campaign now under way in Vancouver to "curb the bad conditions existing on the illegitimate motor market."

Mr. Wood said he would bring the matter up to the meeting after he had been informed that Vancouver dealers were complaining of "ridiculously high prices" paid for second-hand cars. Two Eastern officials of the Federation of Automobile Dealers' Association of Canada will be present at the meeting, he added.

Vancouver dealers are complaining the majority of motorists who buy new cars offer no trade in, and instead sell their old automobiles to fly-by-night dealers for excessive prices. In the United States it is practically impossible to obtain a new car unless the motorist has a trade in.

Reconditioned and guaranteed cars would be sold at a price in line with new car cost if second-hand cars were turned over to responsible dealers, according to Vancouver officials.

The B.C. Used Car Dealers' Association in Vancouver has set certain prices they will pay for some models. For most 1947 models they will pay approximately $1,900; 1941 models, $1,250; 1938 models, $800, and 1935 models, $500.

B.C. Legion Asks 100% Increase In Disability Pension

VERNON, B.C. (CP) — The British Columbia Command of the Canadian Legion approved resolutions calling for a 100 per cent increase in disability pensions for veterans and upward revision of widows' pensions.

More than 350 delegates attending the 18th annual five-day convention of the command, devoted the major portion of the business sessions Monday to discussion of pension and rehabilitation problems.

Delegates urged that the basic pension for 100 per cent disability for single pensioners be increased from $75 to $150 a month, with corresponding increases for married pensioners.

Other resolutions adopted call for:

1. A minimum annual pension of $1,800 for widows.

2. A fixed rate of exchange of $4.86 on the pound sterling to aid small pensioners under the Imperial pension plan.

3. Granting of all rehabilitation benefits to veterans of Canada's wartime merchant navy, who had service in any theatre of war that authorized the payment of the war risk bonus.

Chamber 'Washes' Library To Open Campaign

213 Mounties Served With Provost Corps

A total of 213 members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police swapped scarlet tunics for drab army battledress during World War II, it is revealed in the R.C.M.P. Quarterly publication in the concluding instalment of a two-part history of No. 1 Provost Company (R.C.M.P.).

The story, in two parts, was written by Assistant Commissioner L. H. Nicholson. The first tells of the formation of the company and describes its arrival in England and its adventures and duties up to the time of its embarkation to the European battlefronts in 1943. The second recounts the company's experiences from the opening of the Sicilian campaign up to Germany's unconditional surrender.

Sixty policemen won commmissions and 31 earned promotions. Seven were killed in action and two died of wounds. Two were killed on active service and 13 were wounded. Only one member of the R.C.M.P. was taken prisoner.

Double Locks Put On Cell Door Of Winnie Ruth Judd

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Double locks, worked by two keys, have been placed on the door to the room in which Winnie Ruth Judd, the "Tiger Woman" trunk murderess, is confined in the Arizona State Hospital for the Insane here.

This was revealed today by Dr. John A. Larson, superintendent of the institution, following the escape and Monday's recapture of the woman who escaped twice before in the 16 years since she committed the murders of which she was convicted.

Mrs. Judd's claim after her recapture that she fled because Dr. Larson had refused to let her see her mother, a voluntary patient in the institution's hospital ward, on Mother's Day, is without foundation, Dr. Larson said.

Recently Dr. Larson ordered Mrs. Judd transferred from the infirmary ward.

"The real reason I ordered the transfer," he said, 'was because I found that she had recently beaten her mother and given her a black eye. I was afraid the old lady (Mrs. Carrie B. McKinnell, Mrs. Judd's mother, is 80) who has had several heart attacks, would die if it happened again."

On Oct. 16, 1931, Mrs. Judd shot and killed Agnes Anne Leroi and Hedvig Samuelson. She shipped their dismembered bodies in two trunks and a suitcase to Los Angeles. She was convicted and sentenced to be hanged, but later was adjudged insane.

Arion Choir At Empress Wednesday

The Arion male voice choir, giving their final concert of their 55th year of musical activity in this city at the Empress tomorrow is fortunate in being to have as assisting artist a young local vocalist, Florence Smith, who has been studying for several years, and is the possessor of a charming contralto voice. She sings with great feeling and will be heard in two groups of well-known and favorite numbers.

The choir, numbering 40 members has prepared a program of 12 numbers, two of them being by special request.

The choir will be led by two conductors, B. C. Bracewell and J. W. Buckler and presiding at the piano for choir and soloist will be Helen McVie.

Victoria Woman Left Cash To Blind Veterans

VANCOUVER (CP)—Blind veterans of the First World War who were resident in British Columbia prior to May 3, 1945, have come into a substantial windfall.

Executors of the will of Letitia Agnes Finlayson, who died in Victoria two years ago, say approximately $70,000 was left to them to be used for their benefit "and not for the use of their dependents."

The money will be paid to the official in charge of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, and it is expected that about a dozen veterans may be found eligible for the bequest.

Help To Enhance Reputation Of Victoria, Mayor Urges

"I appeal to all citizens to co-operate to the fullest extent with the 'clean-up, paint up' campaign being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce from May 12 to May 23, said Mayor Percy George today.

"I need hardly remind our citizens that Victoria has won a high reputation for being a beautiful city, a city of flowers and sunshine. We should, therefore, do all we can to enhance this reputation and our annual 'clean-up, paint-up' period is an effort in this direction.

"Much can be done in the way of cleaning up and beautifying our homes and gardens without entailing too much expense and if nothing else is done during our 'clean-up' period but dispose of the extra rubbish that always accumuulates around the home and garden, this is all to the good.

"I hope this 'clean-up, paint-up' period will become more than just a slogan and that through the joint and sincere efforts of all citizens we will have a cleaner and still more beautiful city.

"The Junior Chamber of Commerce is to be congratulated on the good work it is doing and during the coming week or 10 days this go-ahead organization will see to it that every citizen is asked to assist in this campaign."

Pass By-Law To Establish 5-Man Arena Commission

First reading was given the by-law setting up a five-man commission to operate Victoria's Memorial Arena, at Monday's City Council meeting and 13 men were nominated for consideration as members of the commission at the next City Council meeting.

The original plan had been to name the members at Monday's meeting, but it was ascertained from City Solicitor A. J. Patton that the by-law had to be given final reading before the members could be appointed.

Those nominated by council members were Douglas Fletcher, John Baxter, Archie Wills, Stanley G. Peel, George Wilkinson, Magistrate Henry C. Hall, Lee Hallberg, Russel B. Ker, Dr. A. Poyntz, Hugh Francis, Duncan Kennedy, Forrest Shaw and Frank Hunter.

No member of the City Council can be a member of the commission, who must be either a resident or ratepayer of Victoria. The board serves without remuneration and will hold office for a two-year period. The three getting most votes at the next City Council meeting will serve for two years, the others for one year, to give staggered appointments year by year.

The commission, under the by-law, is to have full and exclusive management, administration and operation of the Arena, and will set and collect all tolls and charges. Operating profits are to go into the city's general revenue fund, and any losses will be paid by the city.

Esquimalt Urged To Consider Share In Detention Home

Early consideration to its request, that Esquimalt participate, not only in the purchase price of a detention home for children, but also in its maintenance, was urged by Miss Rae Kirkendale, superintendent of the Children's Aid Society, at a meeting of the Esquimalt Council, Monday night.

Members of the intermunicipal committee addressed the meeting on the invitation of council. Ald. Margaret Christie, Councillor George Rudd of Esquimalt, W. Pearson, probation officer for Saanich and Constable Arthur Rudge, probation officer for the city, attended.

"It is poor child welfare to detain children in a city lock-up," Miss Kirkendale said. "Over the past years children from 9 years to 17 years have been held in the city jail. It costs money to take care of delinquent children."

A child who remains a delinquent throughout life costs the taxpayers $10,000, she told council. Cost of the home is $8,500 and Esquimalt's share of the purchase, based on the 7 per cent, present basis on which Esquimalt is paying for the social work for the court, would be $595, Miss Kirkendale said. Monthly expenses for upkeep would amount to $12, she said. Fifty-five days care were given Esquimalt children since May, 1946, she told council.

Councillor Rudd said he did not think Esquimalt erred in its original refusal to participate in any capital expenditure or upkeep for a juvenile detention home, but felt once they knew more of the plan might reconsider as did Saanich.

"It is a serious matter to lose the opportunity of putting a young person on the right road," he said.

He felt the fact that Victoria, though in debt, had the courage, to go into the matter of a detention home alone, influenced Saanich Council to make its final decision.

Doubt If Lots Left For 100 More Wartime Houses

Doubt was expressed by Ald. R. A. C. Dewar, chairman of the lands, zoning and housing committee, at Monday's City Council meeting, that the city had 100 suitable, fully-serviced lots on which to place an additional 100 wartime houses for veterans as requested by the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council.

He said that the city had no funds with which to provide services to unserviced lots unless some agreement could be reached whereby Wartime Housing Ltd. paid a substantial part of the cost.

Acting Mayor Edward Williams agreed that the federal corporation should be asked for financial aid in having services provided. The lands committee was asked to bring in a report on the request.

With only Ald. B. J. Gadsden dissenting the council decided to authorize the sale of wartime houses which have been built specially for veterans provided Wartime Housing Ltd. will give a signed undertaking that only veteran tenants will have the opportunity to purchase, and in no instance will a house be sold over the veteran's head.

Ald. Gadsden also did not approve the idea of selling the houses on the Burnside and James Bay projects, which were built during war years for use of warworkers, although Ald. Dewar and Acting Mayor Williams explained that this had been agreed upon last year.

Inducements, such as a 17½ per cent discount at the end of five years, to prevent resale of the houses were outlined in a letter from Denys H. Back, of Wartme Housing Ltd. in Vancouver. Interest is payable on the amount owing on each house at 4½ per cent and the purchaser has no legal costs.

Esquimalt Seeks Heavier Penalties To Halt Vandalism

A by-law to provide stiff fines for persons convicted of vandalism on municipal property, will be introduced at the next meeting of Esquimalt Council, it was decided at the meeting, Monday night.

"It is very discouraging for those of the municipal staff, who are using their best endeavors to provide facilities for the general public, to find their efforts nullified by a few moronic individuals," E. Fulcher, superintendent of public works said in his report.

"Someone smashed the yale lock and keep on a dressing station in Bullen's Park and the lever of the drinking fountain in Memorial Park was stolen."

He suggested that a by-law be prepared covering such acts of vandalism and that buildings be placarded to that effect.

The municipal hall will have its face lifted as a result of council action Monday night, in accepting a tender from the Canada Paint Company of $810 for painting of the interior and exterior of the hall. Councillor C. M. Smith moved an amendment that the lowest tender be accepted, but their was no seconder.

Reeve E. J. Read told council that army authorities would allow use of the pool built by the army near Macaulay Camp, at the lower Kinver Street Beaches, by the public. Reeve Read has spoken to authorities on the matter and said they "met him more than half way," in the matter and offered the services of the engineer to assist.

Council was informed that 50 new sign posts have been obtained and will be installed in the municipality. Another 50 are needed, the superintendent of works said. Council agreed that there would be complete renewal of the municipality's sign posts within a reasonable time. Total cost is $3 per post.

A letter from the Consumers' Action Committee on the "Buyers' Strike," was received and filed, with Reeve Read stating that he felt it was another matter outside the scope of the council.

Councillor G. R. Guillemaud recommended to council that a second truck be ordered immediately by the municipality as the present one "is a bill of expense." One is already on order and Councillor J. P. A. Christensen suggested that council wait until the first truck ordered, arrived. The matter will be discussed at the next meeting.

A. Derbyshire was appointed as a temporary assistant for three months to Mr. Fulcher.

Thomas Hadfield, former reeve of Esquimalt, was asked to represent Esquimalt on the Royal Jubilee Hospital Board of Directors for 1947-48. He was the representative last year.

Table Wednesday Closing By-law For Full Council

Because of the absence of Mayor Percy George, Ald. H. M. Diggon and Ald. W. L. Morgan from Monday's City Council meeting, members attending decided to table consideration of the by-law which would provide for all-day Wednesday closing of boot and shoe retail stores.

D. M. Gordon, appearing on behalf of the Citizens' Committee of Victoria, opposed passage of the by-law, stressing that it is not mandatory on the City Council and also recalling the vote last December when the electorate turned down the principle of all-way Wednesday closing.

A letter was also received from Crease, Davey and Co. on behalf of Safeway Stores Ltd., asking permission to send a delegation to the City Council before any such Wednesday closing by-law is passed.

George A. Wilkinson, for the Retail Clerks' Union, in a letter stated that he had 13,000 signatures on a petition put out this spring favoring the principle of all-day Wednesday closing, and he asked permission to present this petition should the City Council decide not to proceed with the by-law.

Council Endorses Federal Grant For Food For Britain

Monday's City Council meeting endorsed a resolution sent in by the Verdun Women's Club which asked the federal government to make a grant of money to the United Kingdom with which to purchase food supplies in Canada.

Ald. J. D. Hunter moved that the women's organization be informed of the action taken in Victoria to set up the mayor's fund.

Ald. F. N. Cabeldu queried if such action were not outside the jurisdiction of the City Council, and Ald. R. A. C. Dewar said the federal government would set its own policy in such matters.

Acting Mayor Edward Williams disagreed, stressing that the federal government should be kept informed of the wishes of the people, to aid it in formulating proper policies. "I think the resolution should be endorsed," he declared.

City Running Short Of Funds For Grants

The City Council has virtually reached the end of its resources in the giving of special grants to organizations or charities, it was revealed at Monday's City Council meeting.

On recommendation of the finance committee a grant of $200 will be given the Conquer Cancer campaign, $500 will go to the Victoria Symphony Society for work among musical young people, and $100 will go to the Library Board for entertainment of out of town librarians in connection with a conference.

This leaves $400 still unexpended for special grants, Acting Mayor Edward Williams, finance committee chairman, pointed out.

Ald. Margaret D. Christie queried why the Symphony Society should get a grant, because she felt it would encourage other musical organizations to apply for similar consideration.

Lights Normal Near Scene Of Tragedy

In answer to charges made by a coroner's jury in the fatal traffic accident involving an elderly lady at the corner of Fort and Vancouver Streets recently, Ald. F. G. Mulliner, chairman of the street lighting committee, reported to Monday's City Council meeting that the lighting conditions on that particular corner are not poor.

"The lighting prevailing there is as good as any downtown corner of similar importance," he stated, adding that the light was the same as that given by cluster lights everywhere.

City Council Briefs

The finance committee was instructed by Monday's City Council meeting to make arrangements for a joint meeting of the municipalities to discuss Oak Bay's action in reducing assessments this year and thus evading a share of school costs.

After several minutes' discussion on the matter, the City Council finally agreed that the transportation and school building by-laws should be submitted to the ratepayers June 19.

The City Council Monday, again refused a request from the S.P.C.A. for permission to hold a tag day.

Carl Turnquist was named the city's representative on a board of reference which is to arbitrate a dispute between George Wheaton, contractor for Memorial Arena foundations and footings, for $1,742, and the city. Charles T. Hamilton, consulting engineer for the arena, made the nomination

Sale of 13 parcels of land for $10,285 was approved by Monday's City Council meeting. Of these seven were to veterans for $1,290, and six to civilians for $8,995.

An increase in payments to social assistance recipients of $2.50 per family unit per month was authorized by Monday's City Council meeting. The increase was granted by the provincial government April 1, and the city must bear 20 per cent of the cost.

The council met in closed session, following the regular meeting Monday to consider the advisibility of purchasing a lot on the west side of Blanshard Street near Pandora Avenue.

Would Remove Tax From Indemnities

A resolution urging that municipal indemnities be tax free is expected to be presented to the Union of B.C. Municipalities 44th annual convention at Harrison Hot Springs Hotel, September 15 to 17, by the municipality of Esquimalt.

Members are now working on a number of resolutions to be presented.

Council meeting Monday night passed a resolution that two delegates be sent to the convention Reeve E. J. Read was asked to go by council.

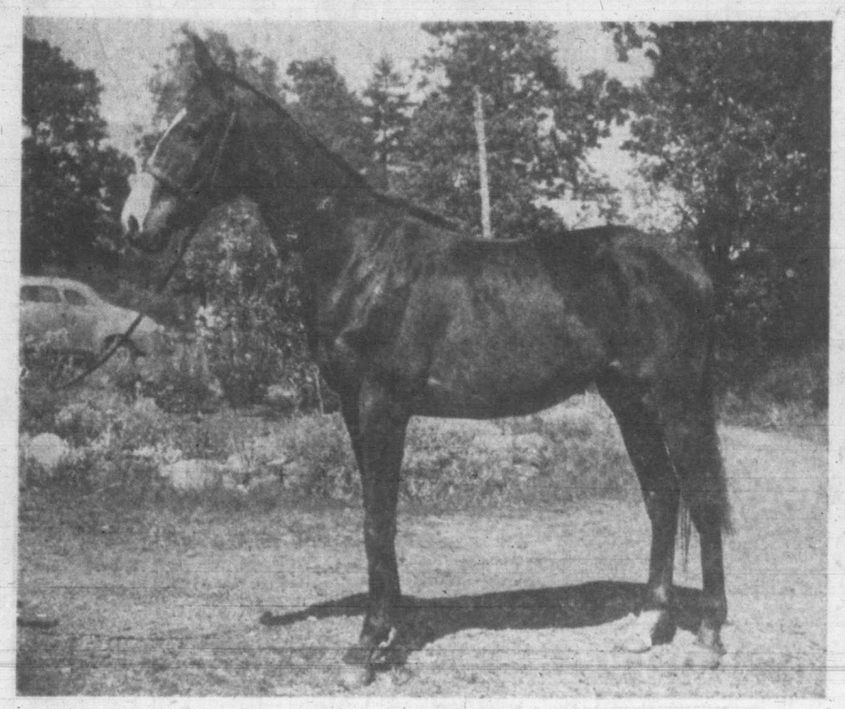
Goes To The Races This Summer



Out at the farm of the Brown and Brown Stable on West Saanich Road this two-year-old colt, Sally's Argo, by Argo out of Sally F. is being conditioned for the coming summer's race season on Vancouver and Victoria tracks. The B. and B. Stable last season raced such well-known thoroughbreds as Bahask and Broad Royal.

Boston's Bobby Bauer Awarded Byng Trophy

MONTREAL (CP)—Chunky little Bobby Bauer of the Kitchener kids, the scrappy stout-hearted right winger of Boston Bruins, has been voted the most sportsmanlike player in the National Hockey League for the third time and winner of the Lady Byng trophy for the 1946-47 season, the N.H.L. office announced last night.

Kitchener Bobby, born 32 years ago in Waterloo, Ont., left the game at the peak of a brilliant career in 1942 to spend three years in the R.C.A.F. This past season he climaxed a brilliant comeback by finishing seventh among the league's scorers, and collected 37 points of a possible 54 in ballotting by 18 hockey writers and broadcasters in the six N.H.L. cities. His previous Byng awards came in 1940 and 1941.

His closest competitor for the trophy was Syl Apps of Toronto Maple Leafs, who received 24 points. Max Bentley of Chicago Black Hawks was third with 10 points.

Only nine players were given consideration by the selectors, who submitted three choices, with three points awarded for a first placing, two for second and one for third.

RECEIVES $1,000

The win brings Bobby, the only Bruin ever to take the trophy, the $1,000 cheque given this year for the first time by the league.

Bauer was first choice of nine balloters, and also collected five seconds. Apps took three first-place votes, five seconds and five thirds.

Bentley was given the first choice by two selectors, placed second by another and third by two more.

Both Apps and Bentley, the loop's leading point maker in the past season, are past winners of the trophy, as are Mosienko and Blake.

The trophy won by Bauer was presented in 1924 by Lady Byng, wife of Canada's Governor-General at the time, to be awarded annually to the player "adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct, combined with a high standard of playing ability during the season."

Frank Boucher, now manager of New York Rangers, won the original trophy seven times and in 1935 it was permanently awarded to the clean-playing centre star and a new trophy put up for competition.

Advises Miss Scott To Retain Gift Car

LONDON (CP)—The London Star's gossip column, commenting today on Barbara Ann Scott's decision to return to the city of Ottawa a gift automobile which threatened her amateur status, today advised: "Dry those tears, Miss Scott, and take the pretty car."

The Star quoted H. J. Clarke, president of the International Skating Union, as desbribing the affair as "a storm in a teacup." Clarke remembered one Olympic skating champion who drove a car presented him by the city of Vienna and "nobody got excited about it."

Financial Question Halts Formation Of Island Boxla League

Nanaimo has an arena and Victoria has Stevenson Park, and therein lies the story whereby the two island centres were unable to come to a satisfactory financial agreement regarding the proposed Vancouver Island senior B lacrosse league. This fact was made known at a meeting of the Greater Victoria Box Lacrosse Association in the Public Schools Club last night.

As a result, the senior B gutted stick loop will be confined to the city with four teams competing for honors. Opening date has been set for Saturday, with last year's intermediate champions, Canadian Legion, meeting Jokers in the initial contest.

In preparation for the season's opener, secretary Leon Hall has called a working bee at Stevenson Park tonight, and requests as many as possible of the box lacrosse faithful to come out and assist in putting the box in shape.

The formation of a box lacrosse school was also announced by Hall last night, with the first tutoring class to be held on May 19. Senior B players will give instruction to any players wishing to take advantage of these classes. If enough interest is shown it is probable that additional teams will be formed from the students as team sponsors are available.

It was decided that the box will be used by the senior B league on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, with Mondays definitely set for juveniles and midgets.

TORONTO (CP) — Howie Meeker, rookie ace of the Stanley Cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs, became father of a six-pound nine ounce daughter last night.

"It's a girl. Everybody's fine," said Meeker's mother. The child was born in Kitchener-Waterloo hospital.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

DIRECTORS OF THE Western International League who introduced split weeks for the clubs this season should have gone a step further and adopted the same schedule—for the umpires. Take last week for instance. Umpires Doc Regele and Amby Moran were here for six days working both the A's series with Wenatchee and Spokane. From the opening night until Saturday's close out the men in blue had their troubles. Result was that, by Friday and Saturday, the cash customers were on their backs. If the umps were switched every three days it would tend to make matters much easier for everybody concerned. It would mean added expense, in the matter of traveling, but, apparently the league is not worrying too much about the cost of traveling, by the way they have the clubs jumping around the country every week.

IT WILL BE interesting to see if the umpire combination of Regele and Moran stays together for the entire season. Saturday the pair were really in each other's hair after Regele had given Manager Ted Norbert the old heave ho. On being ordered from the field Norbert joined some of the Victoria club directors in the box under the grandstand. After a couple of innings he was spotted by Regele who, apparently informed Moran, and the pair got into quite an argument over just who was going to tell Norbert to get moving. It was finally Regele who had to do the job. Big Ted watched the rest of the game from the top of a wood truck parked outside the fence on Vancouver Street. From all indications Moran and Regele are not exactly chummy and league president Bob Abel may have to split the combination and get them new working partners before long.

WITH DIMINUTIVE Frankie Lucchesi hitting the ball well and uncovering some smart ball hawking in centre field for the Athletics, to put himself in solid, the fans of Salem are beginning to express surprise at his release by the Oregon club. Apparently Lucchesi was popular with Salem supporters and they are beginning to flood the Senators' management with the question: "how Come?" Writing in his column Salem sports scribe Al Lightner gives the following reasons for Frankie's release: (1) The rebuilding Portland Beavers (parent club of Salem) have no plans for Lucchesi for the future and figured he might make a better deal for himself elsewhere; (2) What with better hitters like Lou Kubiak, Hal Summers and Bob Moore on hand, plus the possibility of the arrival of another outfielder soon, the Senator management agreed with the Portland verdict. (3) When a ball club isn't winning changes must be made.

IT IS POSSIBLE there was another reason which scribe Lightner fails to mention. Lucchesi may have been drawing down more money than the Salem club wanted to pay. The Senators are known around the league for not paying any too high salaries and this may have been the most important reason for cutting Lucchesi adrift. Salem's loss is Victoria's gain and it's going to be mighty tough to keep the little fellow out of the A's line-up if he continues at his present clip.

Kasparovitch Goes Against Vancouver

Pair of home runs by Red Tran and Bill Wright, coupled with a questionable interference call by plate umpire Last, swept Vancouver Capilanos to a convincing 12 to 4 victory over Victoria Athletics as the W.I.L. ball clubs opened their three-game local stand last night. Defeat tumbled the A's into fourth position with the idle Bremerton Jackets in sole possession of first place. Vancouver moved into the number two spot, tied with Spokane, winner over Yakima, 7 to 3.

Determined to keep right up close with the leaders Manager Ted Norbert of the A's will send his ace righthander, Len Kasparovitch, in against the Caps tonight. Manager Bill Brenner will counter with Jack Meister in an attempt to make it two straight.

Eleven solid base hits off starter Max Hittle cost A's the ball game. Just why Manager Norbert elected to leave the righthander in the box after he had tossed up a pair of home run balls in the fifth and given up another couple of extra base blows is hard to understand. After Jim Gibson was finally called in to take over in the fifth he stopped Vancouver with two hits and one unearned run.

Caps had pushed over three runs on the strength of the two circuit blows and two men were out when umpire Last came up with his interference ruling against catcher Vic Mastro and awarded Charlie Mead first base on what had been a ground ball for the third out. Vancouver, quick to take advantage of the break, pushed another five runners home.

HEDGECOCK WINNER

Southpaw Jim Hedgecock came up with a smart pitching stand for Vancouver. Uncovering a neat curve ball which he mixed up with a change of pace the lefty spaced 10 hits. After Vancouver had moved into a 3 to 0 lead in the first A's got one back in the second and tied it up with a pair in the fourth but that was the last time the Victoria club challenged.

Second baseman Lee Mohr and left fielder Mead paced the Vancouver attack with three for five and two for three, respectively.

First-sacker Jack Harshman and third-sacker Babe Jensen were the only members of the Athletics to get more than one hit.

One big inning, the fifth, gave Spokane its win over Yakima. The Indians collected six of their game's eight hits in the frame for six tallies. Sparking the foray was Bud Hicks' two-run homer and George Schmees' two-run triple. Bill Samson gave up but seven hits in going the route for the winners.

An effective eight-hit chore by Kenny Wyatt sent Salem into a fifth-place tie with Tacoma at the .500 percentage. Timely hitting, including Ben Gregory's two-run eighth-inning single paid off for the Solons.

Short scores follow:

	R.	H.	E.
Wenatchee	1	8	1
Salem	4	10	2
Batteries—McCollum and Pesut; Wyatt and Beard.
Spokane	7	8	0
Yakima	3	7	0
Batteries—Mason and Buffan; Kizura, Strait (5) and Phillips.

Vic High Blacks In Baseball Win

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Turning in a vastly improved exhibition over their last outing, Victoria High School Blacks swamped Esquimalt 16 to 4 in an interhigh baseball clash yesterday.

Pitcher John Moffatt had complete mastery over the Esquimalt stickers and three of the runs charged against him were unearned. Moffatt gave up two scratch hits, fanned seven and walked three. Frank Buxton started on the slab for losers and worked only one and two-third innings, giving up four hits and seven runs before being yanked in favor of Bob Fleming. However, only half Vic High's runs were of the earned variety.

Royals Flash Power To Capture Allan Cup

MONTREAL (CP)—The coveted Allan Cup today belonged to a Montreal team for the first time in 17 years, and not one in the capacity Forum crowd of 11,200 would deny that Montreal Royals didn't deserve it after their smashing 8 to 2 victory last night over Calgary Stampeders, western Canada champions.

The hard-skating Royals just had too much speed and scoring punch as they ran up a 7 to 0 lead and breezed the rest of the way to win the seventh and deciding game of the best-of-seven series that prolonged the hockey season to the latest date in history.

The last time a Montreal club won the Dominion senior hockey title was in 1930 when the famed Montreal Winged Wheelers brought home the cup donated by Sir Montague Allan.

Royals scored four goals in the first period and poured in three more in the second before Stampeders broke the ice. The third session was fairly even with each team counting a single, but the goal-hungry Montrealers still held a margin in territorial play.

Leading the Montreal assault with a pair of goals was shifty Jacques Locas, who is labelled for the professional Canadiens next season. Others went to Cliff Malone, Gerry Plamondon, Doug Harvey, Jimmy Galbraith, Ernie Laforce and Floyd Curry. Bob Brownridge and Doug Cairns garnered the Calgary markers.

Goalie Russ Dertell of the Stamps turned aside 46 shots while Gerry McNeil in the Montreal cage had only 21 drives to handle.

After all the handshakes in centre ice, coach Jack Arbour of the red-sweatered prairie team, congratulated coach Frank Carlin of the Royals and had no alibis.

"We were beaten by a better team," said Arbour, "and every one of my players will admit it."

Mrs. Jackson Takes Medal At Uplands

With an 86 Mrs. E. Jackson took medalist honors in the qualifying round of the women's championship at the Uplands Golf Club Monday. Miss Mary Young was runner-up with a 90.

Match play opened today and will continue until Friday when the champion will be crowned.

British Select Golf Squad For Matches With U.S.

ST. ANDREW'S, Scotland (AP) —Gerald Micklem, recent winner of the English amateur golf championship, was named today with eight other top amateurs to defend the Walker Cup against the United States team May 16-17.

Besides Micklem the team is composed of four Englishmen, Leonard Crawley, Percy Lucas, Charlie Stowe and Ronnie White; two Irishmen, Joe Carr and Cecil Ewing; and two Scots, Alex Kyle and James Wilson.

John Beck, non-playing captain, announced the team in the clubhouse of the Royal and Ancient Golf course following the final day of the trials in which 26 men had showed their wares.

Four members of the team are veterans of the 1938 Walker Cup matches in which Britain beat the United States at St. Andrew's 7-4 with one match halved. They are Kyle, 1939 British amateur champion; Crawley, golfing correspondent for the London Daily Telegraph and one of the most consistent performers this year; Stowe, former coal miner who lost to Micklem in the finals of the amateur title play this year, and Ewing, who has been a top player for many years.

The players range in ages from Crawley's 43 to Carr's 24.

Esquimalt Meat, Brentwood Aces Share Senior A Softball Lead

Esquimalt Meat Market and Brentwood Aces continued to show the way in the senior A softball race last night by turning in victories over Douglas Tire and Army, Navy and Air Force Vets, respectively. Result of the games leaves the two teams tied for the loop leadership, each with four victories and one defeat.

George Kinch and Joe Bryant engaged in a hurler's duel in the Esquimalt Douglas Tire set-to, the game being decided in the 10th inning when Bill Raferty, third sacker of the meat dealers, slashed a single into centre field to drive home the winning run, and give his mates a 2 to 1 victory.

Douglas Tire's lone run came from the big bat of Porky Andrews in the eighth canto, when he smashed a home run to tie the score after Lackie's squad had taken a 1 to 0 lead in third, with Frank Kilshaw tripling to bring home Gordie Ellis.

Raferty's all important single in the 10th came with the sacks loaded, following two free passes and a bunt single.

GREAT RALLY

For the second straight day Brentwood Aces put on a hair-raising closing drive to snatch victory out of almost certain defeat when they exploded for five runs in the ninth inning to win, 9 to 7. Vets, leading 7 to 4 entering the fatal ninth, seemed to have the game in hand but relief pitcher Norm Martin, who had replaced starter Majorki on the hill, proved to be a second cousin to the Aces and he was charged with the loss.

In other divisional league games played last night, Adverts defeated Hudson's Bay girls 10 to 1; Army and Navy trounced Spencers 23 to 2 in a senior B women's tilt and Douglas Hawkes defeated Black and Whites in a junior boys' game.

Senior B men's results saw Bombers defeat R.C.N.A.D. 19 to 15, and Superior Produce win from Naval Stores 15 to 3.

Phil Marchildon Stars In Philadelphia Victory

At the rate boisterous Bobo Newsom, Washington's self-styled 20-game winner is going along this season, he may be lucky to collect the necessary six triumphs he needs in order to join the select 20-game winners circle.

At the start of the season, Newsom, now in his 17th season in the big time, predicted 20 wins for himself. With the season exactly a month old today, the garrulous righthander has yet to gain his first mound win.

Newsom was hardly at fault last night as he failed in his third attempt. He gave up only five hits and one run in eight innings as Philadelphia Athletics came up with four runs in the top half of the 11th to whip the Senators 5 to 1.

Phil Marchildon, the star Canadian twirler was the big gun of the Athletics' win, limiting the Nats to seven singles and hitting a single to drive in two runs. It was Marchildon's third victory.

BROOKLYN SECOND

Each league got a new runner-up tenant as Brooklyn moved into second spot in the National League by defeating Boston Braves 8 to 3 and Boston Red Sox nipped New York Yankees 4 to 3 to move behind Detroit.

The Dodgers made good use of 11 hits to clip the Braves who dropped to third place. Righthander Ralph Brancha spaced seven hits as Brooklyn made short work of big Mort Cooper. Earl Torgeson, rookie Braves first sacker, continued his heavy slugging by driving in all of his team's runs on a double and a two-run ninth-inning home run, his seventh of the season.

The game was highlighted by a Dodger run-in with plate umpire George Magerkurth over his decisions and resulted in the clearing of the Brooklyn bench of everyone except manager Burt Shotton, coach Jake Pitler, infielder Cookie Lavagetto and pitcher Hugh Casey.

Kept in check by Spud Chandler for seven innings, the Red Sox came to life in the eighth for three runs to eke out a one-run triumph.

400 Waterworks Delegates Register For Two Conventions

More than 400 waterworks officials of the Pacific Northwest will congregate in Victoria this week to attend two conventions, G. M. Irwin, city water commissioner, reported today.

The first convention, the Pacific Northwest Sewage Works Association, will convene at the Empress Hotel tomorrow and already 148 delegates have registered. This will be a one-day convention with discussions on the status of water pollution control, sewer systems, and water quality standards. C. M. Howard, president, will be in charge of all meetings, and Dr. Adolph Weinzirl, professor of public health, University of Oregon Medical School, will address the annual dinner meeting on "The Public Health Aspects of Sewage and Sewage Disposal."

Thursday morning Mayor Percy George will welcome the 325 delegates to the opening session of the Pacific Northwest Section of the American Waterworks Association. Charles H. Williams, of Olympia, Washington, will be in charge of all sessions.

During the first day among the problems discussed by the convention will be "How has the problem of the urban fringe been handled?" "Proposed development of the Greater Victoria Water Supply System," "The Financial Basis of Utility Rate Structures," and public relations. A business meeting will be held in the evening. Mr. Irwin will lead the discussion on the Victoria water supply system.

Friday the convention will break into sectional meetings, and Friday evening a banquet will be held at the hotel. Ald. F. N. Cabeldu, chairman of the Victoria water board, will be toastmaster at the banquet. Harry E. Jordon will be the speaker.

The convention will close Saturday morning with a visit to the Victoria waterworks system, conducted by Mr. Irwin. Special buses are being hired to take the delegates up to the watershed.

Priorities For Vets Building

New priorities have been granted veterans building their own homes, S. H. Okell of Department of Veterans' Affairs in Victoria, announced today, whereby they may obtain all materials necessary to build their home on priority.

Previously a veteran could apply for priorities only after his home had been 50 per cent completed.

Mr. Okell said that application must be made to the Department of Veterans' Affairs office in the Belmont Building as soon as the veteran was ready to start building, if he wished priorities. This will mean that the Citizens' Rahabilitation Committee will no longer handle the distribution of nails, as it has been doing for the past months.

Veterans living in up-island centres will make application to veterans' offices in the National Employment Service offices.

Over 90 Per Cent Of Civil Servants Back 5-Day Week

Officers of the B.C. Provincial Government Employees' Association reported today following a meeting of the Victoria section of the association Monday night that more than 90 per cent of those returning ballots in a poll conducted by the association had endorsed the principle of a five-day week for Victoria provincial government civil servants.

Under the association's plan, yet to go before the provincial executive of the association, and before the government, the weekly hours of work of the civil servants would not be reduced but the civil servants would work a longer day.

The association proposes that the work day start at 8.30 in the morning instead of the present 9 o'clock starting and that the lunch hour be cut from one and one-quarter hours to one hour.

The place was ransacked.

Nothing is reported missing from the apartment house at 1126 Richardson Street which was entered Monday afternoon between 5.45 and 11.15. Mrs. B. Lee told city police that when she left the basement door was locked and when she returned it was open, as well as another door leading to the garage.

Incendiarism Is Believed Cause Of Hotel Fire Here

"We are certain it was of an incendiary nature," comented Fire Chief Joseph Raymond of the Victoria fire department today in regard to the fire which started in a bed in an unoccupied room in the Empress Hotel at 2.50 Sunday morning.

When the fire department arrived to combat the blaze, tourist guests of the hotel were startled.

The fire, which Chief Raymond said started in the bed, badly charred the room's furnishings.

Chief Raymond and the B.C. deputy fire marshal attended and investigated the fire. The city detective department conducted an investigation, which is now being carried on by E. Wood of the C.P.R. investigation department.

Suspended Sentence For Parking Charge

Joseph Carroll, Room 203 Dominion Hotel, was found technically guilty of angle parking in a parallel parking zone, but was given a suspended sentence by Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court today when he contested the case.

Accused said he was new to the city and when he went to park at the west curb on Douglas Street, halfway between View and Yates Street, he placed his car between the old angle parking lines, which were faint but still visible. "There were four or five other cars parked parallel, but I figured that four or five wrongs do not make a right and I left mine angle-parked," Carroll told the magistrate.

He pointed out there were no post signs or painted signs on the road or curb to indicate this was a parallel parking zone. Police evidence was that six-inch letters had been painted on the road stating the new parking method.

Summer Resorts Seek Extra Help In Anticipation Of Record Season

Increasing demands by tourist resorts in the district for additional help for the summer months, was reported today by C. A. Mudge, manager of the National Selective Service here.

In anticipation of one of the biggest tourist seasons Vancouver Island has ever had, restaurants and tourist resorts were employing more help than last year, Mr. Mudge said in revealing that many of these vacancies were being filled by college students.

Some tourists resorts had opened on May 1, while others were contemplating on opening on May 20 and June 1, he said. All were looking forward to a good summer and were seeking additional help.

Mr. Mudge said many college students had taken up temporary employment at summer resorts, as well as other types of jobs such as flower packing, vegetable packing, lumbering and service occupations.

"Business men have co-operated in giving these young men and women jobs and are pleased with their work," he said. "The students have not been fussy about what type of employment they accepted and the majority are prepared to leave town in order to work."

As for other types of employment, Mr. Mudge said shipyards were still seeking welders and there were always openings for good finishing carpenters.

The employment situation was good, he said, except with respect to elderly men who were only capable of doing light work due to health and physical incapacities. "This has always been a major problem," he added.

As of May 8, there was 221 vacancies available for women, as compared with 220 for the previous week, a national selective report revealed. For the same period there were 465 jobs available for men as compared with 520 vacancies for the week ending May 1.

Birth Rate Up; Death Rate Down

For the first quarter of the year Victoria's birth rate increased substantially, while the death rate dropped, Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson, medical health officer, reported in his quarterly report, comparing 1947 with 1946.

In the first three months of 1947 the birth rate was 24.6, with 614 babies having been born, compared with a birth rate of 19.9 for the comparable period in 1946 when 420 babies were born.

The death rate dropped from 15, with 318 deaths in 1946, to 12.2 when there were 306 deaths this year.

Marriages are also up for the three-month period, with 224 couples being married in 1947 and 207 in 1946.

Infant mortality during the period dropped substantially from 38.1 per 1,000 living births in 1946 to 21.2 per 1,000 living births in 1947, but maternal mortality is up from zero to 1.6 in 1947.

Heart diseases accounted for most deaths, 107, and cancer accounted for 48, tuberculosis for 11, and infant diseases 10. There were two suicides recorded, one homicide, three dead from automobile accidents, and nine from other violent or accidental deaths.

In the infectious diseases measles led the list for the quarter with 288 cases having been reported. There were 169 cases of mumps, 85 of chicken pox and 50 of tuberculosis.

Reported 'Bomb' On Beach False Alarm

A report received by city police yesterday that "a man has picked up a bomb" on one of the city beaches and that police attention was wanted as the article might be dangerous, resulted in Constables Norman Galbraith and G. Clark to the scene.

What was reported as a bomb, however, turned out to be a jam bottle containing some old radio parts. It was thrown into a garbage can.

Victoria Youth Hostellers will hold their monthly meeting at the Y.W.C.A. Wednesday at 8. Week-end and day trips for May and June will be planned.

Parties To Leave Shortly To Survey 5 Districts Of B.C.

The summer field survey work of the Provincial Department of Lands and Forests survey branch will get back into its prewar stride this year, Lands and Forests Minister E. T. Kenney announced today.

To date about 100,000 square miles have been covered by air photography by the B.C. government and the R.C.A.F., and 63,000 square miles of mapping has been completed with maps printed and issued.

The 1947 field program consists of five parties under the direction of A. J. Campbell. This program is as follows:

1. Continuation of the B.C.-Yukon boundary survey. Plotting of this boundary is necessary through the opening up of the north country by the Alaska Highway which crosses the boundary in several places. To date 243 miles have been surveyed and marked. This year is expected to see sufficient work done to satisfy the administrative needs for some time. A. C. Pollard will head this party.

2. Topographic survey of the west coast of Vancouver Island will be continued under A. G. Slocomb, operating near Nootka. The party last year completed the mapping of 450 square miles of this difficult country last year. Improved travel facilities this year will probably enable the party to cover a greater area.

3. Topographic survey of the Bridge River area will be undertaken by a party headed by W. R. Young. This survey will be of assistance to the mining, forestry, water power and agricultural interests there.

4. Topographic survey in the Rossland-Trail vicinity by a party headed by A. H. Ralfs. This will cover another mining, forest and agricultural area.

5. Survey of the Skeena and Nass Rivers by a party headed by G. C. Emerson. This area is to be the scene of the operations of the Celanese plant to be built at Port Edward near Prince Rupert.

In these surveys the forests, waterpowers, river channels, agricultural lands, building sites and transportation routes all will be shown on the base topographic maps. From the completed maps long-range schemes may be developed.

Objective of the air survey this year is the photographing of 15,000 square miles, 5,000 square miles near Powell River and 10,000 square miles on the Skeena and Nass watersheds.

This work will be directed by G. S. Andrews, air surveys engineer. Last year 19,500 square miles of territory were photographed.

The whole surveys program is being directed by N. C. Stewart, surveyer-general. Objectives are the accurate topographic mapping of the province showing all features, such as lakes, rivers, mountains and towns, in their proper location and shape.

Number Of Entries Advance Starting Of May 24 Parade

So many entries for the May 24 parade have been received that the starting time of the parade has been advanced so the parade will not interfere with other events scheduled for the day, Bill Bridgewood, chairman of the parade committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, announced today.

The parade will now start at 10.30 instead of 11.

Mr. Bridgewood stated the parade this year would be just twice as long as the one held last May 24.

The parade will muster on Belleville Street. The route of the parade is as follows: Belleville to Government, along Government to Fisgard, up Fisgard to Douglas, along Douglas to Yates, up Yates to Cook, along Cook to Pandora, down Pandora to Quadra and along Quadra to Central Park where the parade will disperse.

The evening parade, to start at 9, will commence at Cook and Yates Streets, and will come down Yates to Government, and along Government to Belleville, where it will disperse.

Dr. Vernon Fowke On College Staff

Among the visiting professors at the special spring session of Victoria College, which is now in progress, for the benefit of veteran students, is Dr. Vernon C. Fowke, associate professor in economics at the University of Saskatchewan.

Dr. Fowke graduated in arts from the University of Saskatchewan in 1928 and obtained his master's degree the following year. He has done post-graduate work at the University of Washington in Seattle and at the University of Toronto.

In 1942 he obtained his Ph.D. at the University of Washington, writing his thesis on "Canadian Agricultural Policy." An enlarged version of this thesis was published in 1946 and has received very favorable reception in academic journals.

Dr. Fowke wrote the monetary section of the Saskatchewan brief for the Rowell-Sirois Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations, and has done research work for the royal commission on co-operatives. He is at present engaged in a study of the social credit movement.

Says He Enlisted Indian Only To Help Carry Case Of Beer

A man with a jail record, chiefly for theft and vagrancy, in pleading not guilty to supplying an Indian with a case of beer, told Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court today that "I was pretty well 'ginned up' and the case of beer I was carrying was getting heavy so I asked this Indian to give me a hand with it."

According to accused, it was just after the transfer had been made that the police arrived on the scene and arrested both. The Indian said the man just handed it over to him—this through the medium of an interpreter—and that no money had changed hands.

Accused said he had bought the liquor in Chinatown, but from where he was not sure. Prosecutor C. L. Harrison extracted the information that he had paid $6 for the case of beer and a pint of wine. In reply to questioning he said he had bought the liquor for a man who worked at Bamberton. He was granted a remand in order to bring the man before the court to verify his story.

The charge against the Indian for being in possession of liquor was withdrawn.

Cost Too High For Garbage Incinerator

In answer to the continued complaints about garbage floating in on the beaches and demands that an incinerator be constructed in Victoria, Mayor Percy George today stressed that an incinerator would cost up to $250,000 and a city dump would still have to be established.

Mrs. E. M. Doody, 451 Foster Street, today sent in a strongly worded complaint to the mayor about the nuisance of garbage floating in, and stated she did not believe the tugs towed the garbage out far enough before dumping it.

She suggested that the money spent on having it towed out could better be invested in an incinerator.

The mayor pointed out that neither metal cans nor bottles are destroyed by incineration, and that there is a great deal of residue which must be dumped.

Closing Date Set For Air Force Cadets

May 31 is closing date of applications for enrollment of air force cadets at the joint R.C.N.-R.C.A.F. College at Royal Roads, it was announced here today by Sqdn. Ldr. Philip Wilkinson, A.F.C., of 12 group headquarters, R.C.A.F., Vancouver.

The fall term at the former R.C.N. college will begin in September, Sqdn. Ldr. Wilkinson said. Boys between the ages of 16½ and 19½ who have or are writing their senior matriculation before July this year, who are medically fit and interested in making the R.C.A.F. a career, are requested to contact their principals or headmasters for full information or write to Sqdn. Ldr. Wilkinson in Vancouver.

May Harris Leading May Queen Contest

May Harris again took the lead in Victoria's May Queen contest following a count of Monday's ballots. She now has 45,500 votes, 500 more than Kay Trevelyan who is second with 45,000.

Miss Harris was first by Friday's count but dropped to second place over the week-end when Miss Trevelyan took the lead away from her by 2,000 votes.

Dorothy Saunders is retaining her third place position having a total of 39,750 votes.

Jessie Robertson made the most spectacular gain for the day. The count revealed that she grossed more than 7,000 votes during the day to raise her from sixth to fourth place position. Miss Robertson now has 35,500 votes.

Marjorie Ross is now fifth with 32,750, and Helen McCaughey and Ferne Clarke have 30,250 and 16,250 respectively.

The contest has just four more days to run.

Early Fur Traders Subject Of Lecture

The B.C. Historical Association meeting here Monday night in the Provincial Library heard a paper presented by Miss Madge Wolfenden, assistant provincial archivist, in which the role of the early fur traders in establishing the cultural life of the Pacific Northwest was described.

Probably the first library on this coast was a collection of books left by James Strange when he departed from the coast following a fur-trading mission started in 1786, Miss Wolfenden said. When Mr. Strange left he left John McKay at Nootka Sound to study the Indians and their habits.

Mr. Wolfenden said D. W. Harmon of the Northwest Fur-trading Company, in his journal indicated that books meant much to him while in the wilderness. The Hudson's Bay Company, she added, provided libraries for their posts and remains of some of these collections are in existence today at Winnipeg.

Tolmie, Sir James Douglas and Archibald McKinley also had their own private libraries.

Victoria was the scene of the first subscription libraries and reading rooms established during the gold-rush days.

Miss Wolfenden also outlined the work of the mechanics institutes in establishing libraries of the province. She exhibited several copies of early books of the colony.

J. A. Heritage, vice-chairman, presided in the absence of the chairman. James Morton moved the vote of thanks.

Thomas of the Victoria Natural History Society, will be presented to Carole Stevens, 11, and Ronald Forbes, 15, for sketches of plants and animals prepared during a course conducted at the Provincial Museum.

The presentations will be made in the Provincial Library reading room tonight. The awards were made to Miss Stevens, junior editor for the Junior Natural History Society, and Mr. Forbes, chairman of the same society, following judging by Archdeacon Robert Connell.

The sketches will be displayed shortly in the Provincial Museum.

I JUST WENT OVER and took another whack at the boat, but So Help Me . . . I don't think she'll ever float. Anyhoo . . . I caulked away with boyish ambition, sitting on an empty box, marked . . . ammunition. That I found on a grassy slope, all tied around with Navy rope. A man came along, walking his dog, and sat down on a worn out log. "What's that stuff, your using son . . . I think she'll float when U get done"????

WE'RE USING some of the most beautiful V-jure covers on our Chesterfield Sets . . . for instance . . . this outfit in floral wine "Lustre-Wave" has such a deep pile it almost shades black . . . we don't want any $400 for this . . . just $295.

"OH . . . I dunno . . . it's some sorta twine, that all swells up as it hits the brine. And when I get it, all pounded in, I smear this gooey stuff . . . in this tin. It doesn't get hard, just sorta sells, to seal the seam as it swells." This man just grunted, watched his dog at play, and never once looked over my way.

AND . . . another thing . . . this isn't just an ordinary Chesterfield Suite . . . they really went to work on this one . . . and fluted the whole thing, and not happy with that . . . they put walnut framework all around . . . wanted dignity and weight . . . got it.

"HOW'S THINGS with you . . . working hard??" to make conversation curried this bard, "YOU got an engine?" he sed with some force, "to shove THAT along . . . take a few horse." "NOPE." I sed, to this inquisitive feller, "and some kids I think, swiped the propeller. But the shaft's still here, and the engine bed, so a Briggs & Stratton's bin goin' thru my head. I've always preferr'd a steady inboard, but I've bin wondering for this, I could afford?"

U CAN always afford QUALITY . . . especially at our warehouse price on this suite . . . $295.

"I'VE seen some beauties near our store, they lay 'em out all neat on their floor. A "Wincmorm's" another make-that, I've seen, they sure look pretty . . . all painted green." The man just sat, tossing pebbles in the sea, and paying very little . . . attention to me. "Where do YOU work??? next he sed, and still didn't bother to turn his head. So I kept pounding away at the lumber . . . "Well, I sell furniture . . . 'Be It Ever So Humber'?

You'll love this tub model in YOUR live-in room . . . it's in the gracious drawing room style.

SUDDEN-LY this guy with the frozen pan, jumped up, a completely changed man. "PUT 'ER THERE SON," and he slapped my back. NOW we were sailing on the same tack. "U know . . . for years I've read your stuff, but I told my wife, it was just PURE GUFF. So the other day, when U wrote of this boat, I determined to find out, if the truth U wrote. And if there W-A-S a boat down on this shore, T-H-E-N I'd believe what I'd read before?

IT'S the heart of your home . . . your live-in room . . . so DON'T BREAK IT . . . buy this sweetheart.

"SO . . . NOW I know . . . cos it's just as your Ad., which pictured this barge as rather sad, HERE . . . lemme show you gimme that cement. She maybe old and kinda bent. And her teeth are all gone, and her mouth is caved in, BUT SHE'S A DARN GOOD WOMAN FOR THE SHAPE'S SHE'S IN."

HUMBER BROTHERS furniture
In the heaney warehouse. View . . . Below Gov't., Opp. Courthouse.

From Seattle came another suggestion we call this tug the "G.F." and from Vancouver a subscriber suggested "The Jolly Roger" . . . and from Duncan, a lady thinks "The Humber Bird" would B fitting . . . any more ideas???? they sure R appreciated . . . and thanks R.M. whoever U are, for your home in this morning's mail . . . U've got something there.

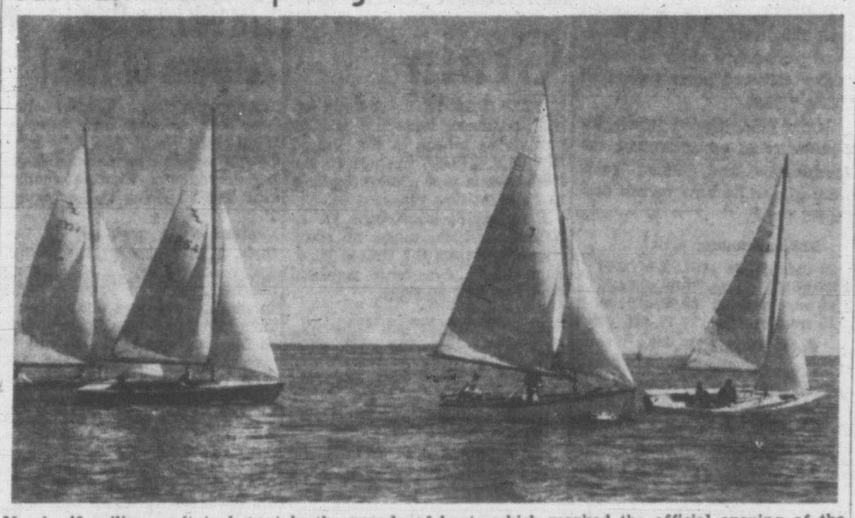
Sail Past Marks Opening Of Yacht Club



Nearly 40 sailing craft took part in the parade of boats which marked the official opening of the 1947 season at Royal Victoria Yacht Club Saturday afternoon. Here four of the trim sailboats sail past to give their salute to Commodore G. W. C. Bissett aboard his motor cruiser Sailishan.

The parade of boats over, club sailing craft head back to harbor prior to the start of the first of A series races for the year. Although the water seemed covered with sails, there were still more club vessels to be put in the water to take their part in the club's activities.

Victorian Leaves $70,000 To Blind Veterans Of War I

Approximately $70,000 has been left to any B.C. veteran, blind since World War I by Miss Letitia Agnes Finlayson, a member of an old Victoria family, who died in Monte Carlo, May 2, 1945.

Although a resident of Victoria, Miss Finlayson, a spinster, spent most of her years traveling abroad, mostly in Europe. Due to the war she was unable to return home and subsequently died in Monte Carlo at the age of 81 years. She is the sister of Mrs. A. B. Cotton, 990 Terrace Avenue. Her father was chief Hudson Bay Factor in Victoria many years ago.

In her will, she directed that the residue of her estate, be used for the benefit of blind returned soldiers of the war of 1914. Claimants must be residents of British Columbia.

The Canadian National Institute for the Blind in British Columbia will be given the money for distribution and "for the use of such blind persons themselves and not for their dependents."

All blind veterans who wish to claim a portion of the fund will be asked through an advertisement to be published shortly to send name and particulars of claim to Sydney Child, Victoria solicitor, for the Canada Trust who are the executors of the estate.

Claims must be in by July 1. Mr. Justice Wilson will then decide what blind veterans of World War I are entitled to benefits which will only include those who have been residents of B.C. prior to May 3, 1945, according to a recent ruling.

No applications have yet been received by Mr. Child, who is unable to say how many veterans might be eligible for the bequest. Gen. J. A. Clark, K.C., is acting for Capt. M. C. Robinson, national director of the C.I.B. in this province.

Court Of Appeal Concludes Sittings

Court of Appeal which began hearings in the courthouse April 8 with the appeal from conviction of James L. Northey and his two sons, concluded the Victoria sittings Monday night, and will reconvene in Vancouver May 20.

Appeal of W. R. Carpenter, Canada Ltd., shiping firm and E. R. Palfreyman, from an order made by Mr. Justice J. M. Coady in Supreme Court Chambers, February of this year, began Monday morning and concluded in the afternoon, with judgment reserved.

Walter S. Owen, K.C., counsel for the appellants, attacked what he termed "insufficiency of material filed in support of the claim." John R. Taylor appeared for the respondents.

The case involved 20 seamen, who claimed wages "due from April to October of 1946, and damages for illegally entering the plaintiffs into Canada, contrary to the provisions of the Immigration Act." They sought damages also, for "breach of contract and faith."

On the Court of Appeal were Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan and Mr. Justices H. B. Robertson, C. H. O'Halloran, Sidney A. Smith and Henry I. Bird.

One Woman's Day

By NANCY HODGES

ALL PAINTED UP

I DON'T KNOW WHAT there is about the spring, but it always seems to turn a housewife's thoughts to cleaning, whatever it does to the young man's fancy that the poet sings about.

And it always gives me an itch to turn out rooms and have the curtains cleaned.

So that the "Paint-up, Clean-up" slogan by which the Junior Chamber of Commerce is prodding us citizens this week fell on receptive ears, as far as I was concerned.

Having cleaned up all that needed cleaning I next looked about for something to paint.

ATTIC APPROACH

AS OUR HOUSE HAS only been built just over a year, the need of paint isn't very pressing.

But as I felt the urge to paint something, I decided to tackle the stairs leading to the attic. Being built under wartime restrictions, these are still very much in the rough.

And I thought a little color might improve their appearance. So off I went in search of paint with the intention of surprising my husband with the finished effect on his return from the east.

Floor finishes are somewhat limited in color range. I didn't want anything drab so, as I love gay colors, I chose an orange tone.

Then, having made sure that there was nothing up in the attic that I would need for at least 24 hours I set to work.

STORY OF A STAIR

NOT BEING A MEMBER of the painters' union, and being inclined to spatter a bit, I got into a pair of woolen slacks and a sweater.

By the time I got to the third step from the top I felt I had acquired a perfect technique, and started humming "Whistle While You Work"—with more gusto than music.

By the time I got to the sixth stair, everything was going with a wonderful rhythm—my paintbrush and the song. In fact, thing's were going too well!

So the little gremlin who patented that old saw about there being many a slip twixt the paint-pot and the step decided to take a hand.

MANY A SLIP

I HAVEN'T THE FOGGIEST notion how it happened, but suddenly I knocked the pot of paint over.

It was a quart can—but it might as well have been a carload. It not only covered the next few stairs, but it smothered my shoes and soaked the bottom of my slacks. Never did I know a can hold so much!

Hastily I swept as much of the surplus pool into the can as possible. Then tore off my shoes and stockings before going through the house in search of turpentine.

Never have I known such penetrating paint! Not only were my shoes and stockings ruined beyond repair. But the paint had oozed through with disastrous results.

FANCY FEET

I FOUND THAT MY FEET from the top of the instep down were a beautiful orange. In fact, I had done such a thorough job that I hesitated for a moment to admire the surrealist effect.

Should I let them dry, then put on a second coat and make a permanent job of it?

On second thoughts, I decided against it. And set to with turpentine. And how I set to!

By the time I had scrubbed the stuff off my feet, I had managed to transfer most of the paint from the pant-legs to my own.

To say nothing of what had stuck to my hands, elbows and knees!

THIRTEEN STEPS

IF YOU HAVE EVER washed or bathed in turpentine, you will know how I felt—and smelt!

Having managed to rid myself of one coat of the orange, I decided to go back to the attic stairs and view the damage.

To find that the can had fallen in such a way that one stair the seventh—was untouched, but the enamel was oozing down the others. So I hastily filled my brush from that and rapidly got to work.

When I had finished, they certainly looked much better than the top half had, for the application was so much more generous.

Now I shall have to go back and finish the top lot—and the seventh stair—as soon as the lower ones are dry enough to walk on.

But I shall go gingerly. For not until I surveyed my work did I realize that there are 13 of those attic steps!

From now on, if anyone mentions "Paint-up, Clean-up Week" to me, their blood—or their paint-pot—be on their own head!

Liquor Sales Fall As Rationing Ends

About a 10 per cent drop in liquor sales by the British Columbia Liquor Control Board was reported today for April, when liquor rationing was abolished.

While official comment was not available from the Liquor Control Board which said it had no statistics available, it was reported unofficially the sales had fallen off about 10 per cent since the end of rationing.

Light Not Burning

Mariners are advised the light at Tahsis Narrows, Nootka Sound, is reported not burning, according to a notice issued today by W. L. Stamford, agent for the Department of Transport.
